

BAPTIST
HYMNAL

Thou art my God, and I will praise thee; thou art my God, I will exalt thee.

By him therefore let us offer
the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips, giving thanks to his name.

Praise ye the Lord: for it is good to sing praises unto our God, for it is pleasant; and praise is comely.

Sing unto the Lord a new song, and his praise in the congregation of saints.

Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving, and make a joyful noise unto him with psalms.

Let the people praise thee, O
God: let all the people praise thee.
O let the nations be glad and sing for joy.

PREFACE.

---

THE design of those concerned in the preparation of the BAPTIST HYMNAL, has been to furnish the churches a book which shall aid in the worship of God, and so make the service of His house more attractive and delightful. They have sought both in the selection of Hymns, and in the choice and adaptation of music, to secure to God's people the best possible expression of the praises, pleadings, and aspirations of their hearts.

By restricting the number of hymns to those which are believed to be all that are necessary, space has been found for a most liberal provision in music. A definite plan has controlled the selection, viz:

1. Wherever the book is opened, a familiar tune is provided, if possible, for every hymn before the eye, preferably a tune already wedded to the words. The book thus becomes at once and in every part available.

2. As advancing tastes desire richer effects in harmony, on the same or opposite page with most hymns is afforded the alternative of a less familiar tune of the highest musical worth. The melodies of these more elaborate compositions may be sung by the congregation in unison, harmony being supplied by choir or organ.

3. As it is impossible to supply certain hymns of irregular measure with a choice of tunes, they are attended simply by the music, old or new, to which their established or growing popularity is largely due.

4. In the few instances where for regular meters but one tune was found practicable, the choice has been given to a familiar one, except in a minimum of cases and for controlling reasons.

All sources have been laid under contribution for the music. The animated Sacred Songs of Lowry, Bliss, and others; Psalm-tunes hallowed by use for more than a generation; the familiar Church Psalmody of Mason, Bradbury, Kingsley, and Woodbury; the stately Ancient Chorals of Europe, and the free melodies and rich harmonies from the school of church music represented in England by Dykes and Barnby; on the Continent by Gounod and Hiller, and in America by Cutler and Cornell; all will be found here represented.

The especial features of the Hymnal are therefore:

1. A collection of hymns shown by experience to be useful. 2. A larger provision of popular melodies than is usual in books of this character. 3. A choice, subject to few exceptions, between tunes generally known and newer or more elaborate melodies.

With this brief preface the book is sent forth with the earnest prayer that it may prove a blessing to the churches and the world. To God be the glory of any success it may achieve.

PUBLISHER'S NOTE.

Two years ago the Publication Society resolved to publish another Hymn Book, and appointed a Committee, consisting of A. J. Rowland, D.D., P. S. Henson, D.D., and Rev. L. P. Hornberger, to attend to its compilation. Under instructions from the Board, this Committee, in connection with the Secretary of the Society, B. Griffith, D.D., invited H. M. King, D.D., of Boston, Mass., H. H. Tucker, D.D., of Atlanta, Ga., J. A. Smith, D.D., of Chicago, Ill., E. G. Taylor, D.D., of Providence, R. I., Rev. H. M. Richardson, of Maryville, Mo., Samuel Graves, D.D., of Grand Rapids, Mich., T. T. Eaton, D.D., of Petersburg, Va., Basil Manly, D.D., of Louisville, Ky., E. T. Winkler, D.D., of Marion, Ala., Rev. T. S. Griffith, of Holmdel, N. J., Daniel Read, D.D., of Bloomington, Ill., T. H. Pritchard, D.D., of Wake Forest, N. C., and Wayland Hoyt, D.D., of Brooklyn, N. Y., to become a Consulting Committee, and to furnish lists of Hymns necessary in their judgment for purposes of worship. The Hymns thus sent were carefully considered by the Committee, and wherever five or more of those sending them concurred, were adopted for publication. The hymns were then placed in the hands of W. H. Doane, Mus. Doc., and E. H. Johnson, D.D., Musical Editors, who, during the process of the work, were in frequent consultation with A. J. Rowland, D.D., Chairman of the Society's Committee. On the completion of their labors, a Proof of the entire book was taken and sent to the Consulting Committee and others, for criticisms and suggestions.

It will thus be seen that the BAPTIST HYMNAL is the result of long and painstaking toil, and that it embodies the choices and tastes of a large number of our well-known workers. The Publication Society trusts that the book will prove acceptable to the churches in all parts of the country, and a real addition to the Service of Praise. Its officers and managers desire to express their gratitude to the members of the Consulting Committee, to the Hymnal Committee of the Board, to E. H. Johnson, D.D., for very important and uncompensated labor, and especially to Dr. W. H. Doane for his invaluable and gratuitous service as Musical Editor-in-Chief.

Acknowledgments are also due, and are hereby made, to Messrs. Biglow & Main, Mr. George Kingsley, Dr. Robert Lowry, Dr. J. Ireland Tucker, W. W. Huntington, Esq., Messrs. E. & J. B. Young, T. E. Perkins, and others, for permission to use valuable copyright music.

B. GRIFFITH, SECRETARY.

CERTIFICATE.

The Undersigned, having been requested by the Officers of the AMERICAN BAPTIST PUBLICATION SOCIETY to examine the Proof sheets of the "Baptist Hymnal," for the compilation of which most of us sent lists of Hymns, and to suggest such emendations as might be thought by us expedient to make the Book more acceptable and useful, hereby certify that we have carefully performed the duties assigned us, and unite in heartily commending the Hymnal to the Churches. The list of hymns comprises all that are really needful for public worship; the adaptation of tunes and hymns by the Musical Editors is all that could be wished; and the provision of so much variety, especially in the music, fits the book to the varied culture and tastes of all grades of worshippers.

We earnestly hope that this new and most excellent aid to worship will have the widest possible circulation and use.

WORSHIP.

LYONS. 108, 118.

F. J. HAYDN. 1732-1809.

1. O worship the King, all glorious a-bove, And gratefully sing his wond-er-ful love,

Our Shield and Defender, the Ancient of days, Pavilioned in splendor, and girded with praise.

SIR ROBERT GRANT. 1830.

- 1 O worship the King, all glorious above,
And gratefully sing his wonderful love,
Our Shield and Defender, the Ancient of days,
Pavilioned in splendor, and girded with praise.
- 2 Thy bountiful care what tongue can recite?
It breathes in the air, it shines in the light,
It streams from the hills, it descends to the plain,
And sweetly distills in the dew and the rain.
- 3 Frail children of dust, and feeble as frail,
In thee do we trust, nor find thee to fail:
Thy mercies how tender, how firm to the end,
Our Maker, Defender, Redeemer, and Friend!

CHARLES WESLEY. 1745.

- 1 Ye servants of God, your Master proclaim,
And publish abroad his wonderful name;
The name all-victorious of Jesus extol;
His kingdom is glorious, and rules over all.
- 2 Then let us adore, and give him his right,
All glory and power and wisdom and might,
All honor and blessing, with angels above,
And thanks never ceasing, for infinite love.

WORSHIP.

OLD HUNDRED. L. M.

LOUIS BOURGEOIS. 1541—.

Praise God from whom all blessings flow; Praise him above, ye heavenly host; Praise Father, Son, and Ho - ly Ghost.
Praise him, all creatures here below;

ISAAC WATTS. 1719.

- 1 Ye nations round the earth, rejoice
Before the Lord, your sovereign King,
Serve him with cheerful heart and voice,
With all your tongues his glory sing.
- 2 The Lord is God; 'tis he alone
Doth life and breath and being give;
We are his work, and not our own;
The sheep that on his pastures live.
- 3 Enter his gates with songs of joy,
With praises to his courts repair,
And make it your divine employ
To pay your thanks and honors there.
- 4 The Lord is good; the Lord is kind;
Great is his grace, his mercy sure;
And the whole race of man shall find
His truth from age to age endure.

TATE AND BRADY. 1696.

- 1 Be thou, O God, exalted high;
And as thy glory fills the sky,
So let it be on earth displayed,
Till thou art here, as there, obeyed.
- 2 O God, my heart is fixed; 'tis bent
Its thankful tribute to present;
And, with my heart, my voice I'll raise
To thee, my God, in songs of praise.
- 3 Thy praises, Lord, I will resound
To all the listening nations round;
Thy mercy highest heaven transcends;
Thy truth beyond the clouds extends.

ISAAC WATTS. 1719. Alt. by J. WESLEY. 1741.

- 1 Before Jehovah's awful throne,
Ye nations, bow with sacred joy:
Know that the Lord is God alone;
He can create, and he destroy.
- 2 We are his people, we his care,
Our souls, and all our mortal frame:
What lasting honors shall we rear,
Almighty Maker, to thy name?
- 3 We'll crowd thy gates with thankful songs,
High as the heavens our voices raise;
And earth, with her ten thousand tongues,
Shall fill thy courts with sounding praise.
- 4 Wide as the world is thy command,
Vast as eternity thy love:
Firm as a rock thy truth shall stand,
When rolling years shall cease to move.

ISAAC WATTS. 1719.

- 1 From all that dwell below the skies,
Let the Creator's praise arise;
Let the Redeemer's name be sung,
Through every land, by every tongue.
- 2 Eternal are thy mercies, Lord;
Eternal truth attends thy word:
Thy praise shall sound from shore to shore,
Till suns shall rise and set no more.

DOXOLOGY.

To God the Father, God the Son,
And God the Spirit, Three in One,
Be honor, praise, and glory given,
By all on earth, and all in heaven.

SESSIONS. L. M.

L. O. EMERSON.

To God the Father, God the Son, And God the Spirit, Three in One, Be honor, praise, and glory given, By all on earth, and all in heaven.

1. Come, O my soul, in sa - cred lays Attempt thy great Cre - a - tor's praise: But O, what tongue can speak his fame? What verse can reach the lofty theme? What verse can reach the lofty theme?

THOMAS BLACKLOCK. 1754.

1 Come, O my soul, in sacred lays
Attempt thy great Creator's praise:
But O, what tongue can speak his fame?
What verse can reach the lofty theme?

2 Enthroned amid the radiant spheres,
He glory like a garment wears;
To form a robe of light divine,
Ten thousand suns around him shine.

3 In all our Maker's grand designs,
Almighty power, with wisdom, shines;
His works, thro' all this wondrous frame,
Declare the glory of his name.

4 Raised on devotion's lofty wing,
Do thou, my soul, his glories sing;
And let his praise employ thy tongue
Till listening worlds shall join the song.

NAHUM TATE. 1696.

1 With one consent, let all the earth
To God their cheerful voices raise;
Glad homage pay with awful mirth,
And sing before him songs of praise:

2 Convinced that he is God alone,
From whom both we and all proceed;
We, whom he chooses for his own,
The flock that he vouchsafes to feed.

3 O enter, then, his temple gate,
Thence to his courts devoutly press,
And still your grateful hymns repeat,
And still his name with praises bless.

4 For he's the Lord, supremely good;
His mercy is forever sure;
His truth, which always firmly stood,
To endless ages shall endure.

SEASONS. L. M.

IGNACE PLEVEL. 1757-1831.

1. Praise, Lord, for thee in Zi - on waits; Prayer shall be-siege thy tem - ple gates;
All flesh shall to thy throne re - pair, And find through Christ sal - va - tion there.

HENRY FRANCIS LYTE. 1834.

- 1 Praise, Lord, for thee in Zion waits;
Prayer shall besiege thy temple gates;
All flesh shall to thy throne repair,
And find through Christ salvation there.
- 2 How blest thy saints! how safely led!
How surely kept! how richly fed!
Saviour of all in earth and sea,
How happy they who rest in thee.
- 3 The year is with thy goodness crowned;
Thy clouds drop wealth the world around;
Through thee the deserts laugh and sing,
And nature smiles and owns her King.
- 4 Lord, on our souls thy Spirit pour;
The moral waste within restore;
O let thy love our spring-tide be,
And make us all bear fruit to thee.

ISAAC WATTS. 1719.

- 1 My God, my King, thy various praise
Shall fill the remnant of my days;
Thy grace employ my humble tongue,
Till death and glory raise the song.
- 2 The wings of every hour shall bear
Some thankful tribute to thine ear;
And every setting sun shall see
New works of duty done for thee.
- 3 Let distant times and nations raise
The long succession of thy praise;
And unborn ages make my song
The joy and triumph of their tongue.
- 4 But who can speak thy wondrous deeds?
Thy greatness all our thoughts exceeds:
Vast and unsearchable thy ways!
Vast and immortal be thy praise!

ROCKINGHAM. L. M.

DR. LOWELL MASON. 1792-1872.

1. My God, my King, thy various praise Shall fill the rem-nant of my days;
Thy grace em - ploy my hum - ble tongue, Till death and glo - ry raise the song.

HAMPTON. L. M.

HENRY SMART. 1812-1879.

1. Far from my thoughts, vain world, be-gone; Let my re-lig-ious hours a-lone;

Fain would my eyes my Sav-iour see; I wait a vis-it, Lord, from thee.

ISAAC WATTS. 1707.

1 Far from my thoughts, vain world, begone;
Let my religious hours alone;
Fain would my eyes my Saviour see;
I wait a visit, Lord, from thee.

2 O warm my heart with holy fire,
And kindle there a pure desire;
Come, sacred Spirit, from above,
And fill my soul with heavenly love.

3 Blest Saviour, what delicious fare!
How sweet thy entertainments are!
Ne'er did the angels taste above
Redeeming grace and dying love.

4 Hail, great Immanuel, all divine!
In thee thy Father's glories shine;
Thy glorious name shall be adored,
And every tongue confess thee Lord.

ISAAC WATTS. 1719.

1 Sweet is the work, my God, my King,
To praise thy name, give thanks, and sing;
To show thy love by morning light,
And talk of all thy truth at night.

2 My heart shall triumph in my Lord,
And bless his works and bless his word;
Thy works of grace, how bright they shine!
How deep thy counsels, how divine!

3 But I shall share a glorious part,
When grace hath well refined my heart,
And fresh supplies of joy are shed
Like holy oil, to cheer my head.

4 Then shall I see and hear and know
All I desired or wished below;
And every power find sweet employ
In that eternal world of joy.

GRATITUDE. L. M.

P. A. D. BOST. 1790-1874.

- 1 While thee I seek, protecting Power,
 Be my vain wishes stilled;
 And may this consecrated hour

 Thy love the power of thought bestowed;
 To thee my thoughts would soar;

OTTIWELL HEGINBOTHAM. 1794.

- 1 Father of mercies! God of Love!
 My Father and my God!
 I'll sing the honors of thy name,
 And spread thy praise abroad.
 Thou boundless Source of every good,
 My best desires fulfill;
 O help me to adore thy grace,
 And mark thy sovereign will.
- 2 In all thy mercies may my soul
 Thy bounteous goodness see;
 Nor let the gifts thy hand imparts
 Estrange my heart from thee.
 In every changing scene of life,
 Whate'er that scene may be,
 Give me a meek and humble mind,
 A mind at peace with thee.
- 3 Through every period of my life,
 Each bright, each clouded scene,
 Give me a meek and humble mind,
 Still equal and serene.
 Then I may close my eyes in death,
 Free from distracting care;
 For death is life, and labor rest,
 If thou art with me there.

No fiery cherub guards his seat,
Nor double flaming sword.
- 3 The peaceful gates of heavenly bliss
Are opened by the Son;
High let us raise our notes of praise,
And reach the almighty throne.

Whom words nor thoughts can reach;
A broken heart shall please him more
Than noblest forms of speech.
- 4 Thou holy God! preserve our souls

The pure in heart are thy delight,
And they thy face shall see.

3 Father-like, he tends and spares us,
Well our feeble frame he knows;
In his hands he gently bears us,
Rescues us from all our foes;
Hallelujah!
Praise Jehovah, God of grace.

ROBERT HAWKER. 1774.

1 Lord, dismiss us with thy blessing;
Fill our hearts with joy and peace;
Let us each, thy love possessing,
Triumph in redeeming grace:
O, refresh us,
Traveling through this wilderness.

2 Thanks we give, and adoration,
For thy gospel's joyful sound;
May the fruits of thy salvation
In our hearts and lives abound;
May thy presence
With us evermore be found.

3 Then, whene'er the signal's given
Us from earth to call away,
Borne on angels' wings to heaven,—
Glad the summons to obey,—
May we ever
Reign with Christ in endless day.

FRANCIS S. KEY. 1779-1843.

1 Lord, with glowing heart I'd praise thee
For the bliss thy love bestows;
For the pardoning grace that saves me,
And the peace that from it flows;
Help, O God, my weak endeavor;
This dull soul to rapture raise;
Thou must light the flame, or never
Can my soul be warmed to praise.

2 Praise, my soul, the God that sought thee,
Wretched wanderer, far astray;
Found thee lost, and kindly brought thee
From the paths of death away;
Praise, with love's devoutest feeling,
Him who saw thy guilt-born fear,
And, the light of hope revealing,
Bade the blood-stained cross appear.

3 Lord, this bosom's ardent feeling
Vainly would my lips express:
Low before thy footstool kneeling,
Deign thy suppliant's prayer to bless;
Let thy grace, my soul's chief treasure,
Love's pure flame within me raise;
And, since words can never measure,
Let my life show forth thy praise.

2 Might I enjoy the meanest place
Within thy house, O God of grace,
Not tents of ease, nor thrones of power,

3 God is our sun,—he makes our day;
God is our shield,—he guards our way
From all th' assaults of hell and sin,
From foes without and foes within.

4. All needful grace will God bestow,

ANNA LÆTITIA BARBAULD. 1773.

1 How pleasant, how divinely fair,
O Lord of hosts, thy dwellings are!
With long desire my spirit faints
To meet th' assemblies of thy saints.

1 When, as returns this solemn day,
Man comes to meet his Maker, God,
What rites, what honors shall he pay?
How spread his sovereign name abroad?

2 My flesh would rest in thine abode;
My panting heart cries out for God;
My God, my King, why should I be
So far from all my joys and thee?

2 From marble domes and gilded spires
Shall curling clouds of incense rise,
And gems and gold and garlands deck
The costly pomp of sacrifice?

3 Blest are the men whose hearts are set
To find the way to Zion's gate;
God is their strength; and, through the road,
They lean upon their helper, God.

3 Vain, sinful man! creation's Lord
Thy golden offerings well may spare;
But give thy heart, and thou shalt find
Here dwells a God who heareth prayer.

4 Cheerful they walk, with growing strength,
Till all shall meet in heaven at length;
Till all before thy face appear,
And join in nobler worship there.

4 O, grant us, in this solemn hour,
From earth and sin's allurements free,
To feel thy love, to own thy power,
And raise each raptured thought to thee.

- 3 One day amidst the place
Where my dear God hath been.
Is sweeter than ten thousand days

ANON. 1833.

- 1 Ere another Sabbath's close,
Ere again we seek repose,
Lord, our song ascends to thee;
At thy feet we bow the knee.
- 2 For the mercies of the day,
For this rest upon our way,
Thanks to thee alone be given,
Lord of earth, and King of heaven.
- 3 Cold our services have been;
Mingled every prayer with sin;
But thou canst and wilt forgive;
By thy grace alone we live.
- 4 Let these earthly Sabbaths prove
Foretastes of our joys above;
While their steps thy pilgrims bend
To the rest which knows no end.

- 1 When the worn spirit wants repose,
And sighs her God to seek,
How sweet to hail the evening's close,
That ends the weary week!
- 2 How sweet to hail the early dawn,
That opens on the sight,
When first that soul-reviving morn
Sheds forth new rays of light!
- 3 Sweet day! thine hours too soon will cease;
Yet while they gently roll,
Breathe, heavenly Spirit, source of peace,
A Sabbath o'er my soul.
- 4 When will my pilgrimage be done,
The world's long week be o'er,
The Sabbath dawn which needs no sun,
That day which fades no more.

MORNING HYMN. L. M.

F. H. BARTHOLOMEW. 1741-1808.

1. A - wake, my soul, and with the sun Thy dai - ly stage of du - ty run;
Shake off dull sloth, and joy - ful rise To pay thy morn - ing sac - ri - fice.

THOMAS KEN. 1697.

1 Awake, my soul, and with the sun
Thy daily stage of duty run;
Shake off dull sloth, and joyful rise
To pay thy morning sacrifice.

2 Wake and lift up thyself, my heart,
And with the angels bear thy part,
Who, all night long, unwearied sing
High praise to the eternal King.

3 Glory to thee who safe hast kept,
And hast refreshed me whilst I slept!
Grant, Lord, when I from death shall wake,
I may of endless life partake!

4 Lord, I my vows to thee renew;
Disperse my sins as morning dew;
Guard my first springs of thought and will,
And with thyself my spirit fill.

5 Direct, control, suggest this day,
All I design, or do, or say;
That all my powers, with all their might,
In thy sole glory may unite.

ISAAC WATTS. 1709.

1 My God, how endless is thy love!
Thy gifts are every evening new;
And morning mercies from above
Gently distill like early dew.

2 Thou spread'st the curtains of the night,
Great Guardian of my sleeping hours:
Thy sovereign word restores the light,
And quickens all my drowsy powers.

3 I yield my powers to thy command;
To thee I consecrate my days;
Perpetual blessings from thy hand
Demand perpetual songs of praise.

Once more, my voice, thy tribute pay

My sins would rouse his wrath to flame,
And yet his wrath delays.
- 4 Great God, let all my hours be thine,
While I enjoy the light;
Then shall my sun in smiles decline,
And bring a pleasant night.

ISAAC WATTS. 1719.

- 1 Lord, in the morning thou shalt hear
My voice ascending high;

To thee lift up mine eye.
- 2 Thou art a God before whose sight
The wicked shall not stand;
Sinners shall ne'er be thy delight,
Nor dwell at thy right hand.
- 3 But to thy house will I resort,
To taste thy mercies there;
I will frequent thine holy court,
And worship in thy fear.

REFRAIN.

54

FREDERICK W. FABER. 1849.

1 Lord Jesus, bless us ere we go:
Thy word into our minds instill;
And make our lukewarm hearts to glow
With lowly love and fervent will.

REF.—Through life's long day and death's dark night,

O gentle Jesus! be our light.

2 The day is done, its hours have run;
And thou hast taken count of all,

The scanty triumphs grace hath won,
The broken vow, the frequent fall.

3 Grant us, dear Lord, from evil ways
True absolution and release;
And bless us, more than in past days,
With purity and inward peace.

4 Do more than pardon; give us joy,
Sweet fear, and sober liberty,
And loving hearts without alloy,
That only long to be like thee.

J. STAINER. 1872.

2 Look from the height of heaven, and send to cheer us

Thy light and truth, and guide us onward still;

Still let thy mercy, as of old, be near us,
And lead us safely to thy holy hill.

1 Now, when the dusky shades of night retreating

Before the sun's red banner swiftly flee;
Now, when the terrors of the dark are fleeing,

O Lord, we lift our thankful hearts to thee.

3 So, when that morn of endless light is waking,

And shades of evil from its splendors flee,
Safe may we rise, this earth's dark vale
forsaking,

Through all the long bright day to dwell with thee.

1. Sun of my soul, thou Sav- iour dear, It is not night if thou be near;

O may no earth-born cloud a - rise To hide thee from thy serv - ants eyes.

JOHN KEBLE. 1827.

1 Sun of my soul, thou Saviour dear,
It is not night if thou be near;
O may no earth-born cloud arise
To hide thee from thy servant's eyes.

2 When the soft dews of kindly sleep
My wearied eyelids gently steep,
Be my last thought, how sweet to rest
Forever on my Saviour's breast.

3 Abide with me from morn till eve,
For without thee I can not live;
Abide with me when night is nigh,
For without thee I dare not die.

4 Come near and bless us when we wake,
Ere through the world our way we take;
Till, in the ocean of thy love,
We lose ourselves in heaven above.

THOMAS KEN. 1697.

1 Glory to thee, my God, this night,
For all the blessings of the light:
Keep me, O keep me, King of kings,
Beneath thine own Almighty wings.

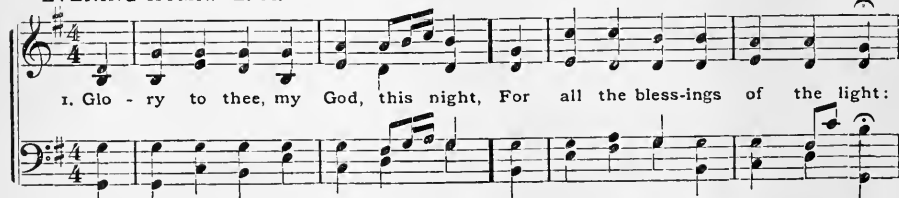

2 Forgive me, Lord, for thy dear Son,
The ill which I this day have done;
That with the world, myself, and thee,
I, ere I sleep, at peace may be.

3 Teach me to live, that I may dread
The grave as little as my bed;
Teach me to die, that so I may
Rise glorious at the judgment-day.

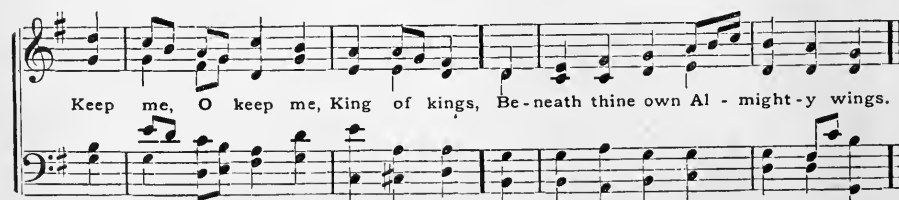

4 Be thou my Guardian while I sleep;
Thy watchful station near me keep;
My heart with love celestial fill,
And guard me from th' approach of ill.

EVENING HYMN. L. M.

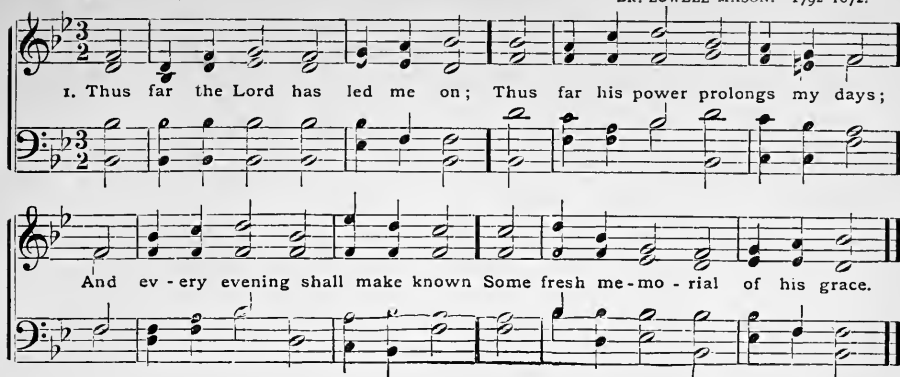

THOS. TALLIS. 1529-1585.

1. Glo - ry to thee, my God, this night, For all the bless-ings of the light:

Keep me, O keep me, King of kings, Be - neath thine own Al - might - y wings.

1. Thus far the Lord has led me on; Thus far his power prolongs my days;
And ev - ery evening shall make known Some fresh me - mo - rial of his grace.

ISAAC WATTS. 1707.

- 1 Thus far the Lord has led me on;
Thus far his power prolongs my days;
And every evening shall make known
Some fresh memorial of his grace.
- 2 Much of my time has run to waste,
And I, perhaps, am near my home;
But he forgives my follies past;
He gives me strength for days to come.

- 3 I lay my body down to sleep;
Peace is the pillow for my head;
While well-appointed angels keep
Their watchful stations round my bed.
- 4 Thus, when the night of death shall come,
My flesh shall rest beneath the ground,
And wait thy voice to break my tomb,
With sweet salvation in the sound.

WOODSTOCK. C. M.

1. I love to steal awhile away From ev - ery cum - bering care,
And spend the hours of set - ting day In hum - ble, grate - ful prayer.

PHOEBE H. BROWN. 1825.

- 1 I love to steal awhile away
From every cumbering care,
And spend the hours of setting day
In humble, grateful prayer.
- 2 I love in solitude to shed
The penitential tear,
And all his promises to plead
Where none but God can hear.
- 3 I love to think on mercies past,
And future good implore,

And all my cares and sorrows cast
On him whom I adore.

- 4 I love by faith to take a view
Of brighter scenes in heaven;
The prospect doth my strength renew,
While here by tempests driven.

- 5 Thus, when life's toilsome day is o'er,
May its departing ray
Be calm as this impressive hour,
And lead to endless day.

60

CHRISTOPHER WORDSWORTH. 1862.

- 1 The day is gently sinking to a close,
Fainter and yet more faint the daylight glows;
O Brightness of thy Father's glory! thou
Eternal Light of light, be with us now!
Where thou art present, darkness can not be;
Midnight is glorious noon, O Lord, with thee.
- 2 Thou, who in darkness walking didst appear
Upon the waves, and thy disciples cheer,
Come, Lord, in lonesome days, when storms assail,
And earthly hopes and human succors fail;
When all is dark, may we behold thee nigh,
And hear thy voice, "Fear not; for it is I."
- 3 Our changeful lives are ebbing to an end,
Onward to darkness and to death we tend;
O Conqueror of the grave! be thou our Guide,
Be thou our light in death's dark eventide;
Then in our mortal hour will be no gloom,
No sting in death, no terror in the tomb.

Symbol of the peace within
When the spirit rests from sin.
- 4 Saviour! may our Sabbaths be
Days of joy and peace in thee,
Till in heaven our souls repose,
Where the Sabbath ne'er shall close.

Naught escapes, without, within,
Pardon each infirmity,

Then, from sin and sorrow free,

And grant my prayer;
Receive my humble thanks
For all thy tender care.

- 3 Defend and keep thy child
Through night's dark shade;
And let no thought of harm
My trusting heart invade.

1 Saviour, again to thy dear Name we raise
With one accord our parting hymn of

We stand to bless thee ere our worship cease,
Then, still delaying, wait thy word of peace.

2 Grant us thy peace upon our homeward

Guard thou the lips from sin, the hearts

Turn thou for us its darkness into light;
From harm and danger keep thy chil-

4 Grant us thy peace throughout our

ST. PETERSBURG. L. M. 61.

D. BORTNIANSKY. 1751-1825.

1. { The Lord my past - ure shall pre-pare, And feed me with a shep-herd's care; }
His pres - ence shall my wants sup - ply, And guard me with a watch-ful eye: } My noon - day walks he shall at-tend, And all my midnight hours defend.

2 When in the sultry glebe I faint,
Or on the thirsty mountain pant,
To fertile vales and dewy meads
My weary, wandering steps he leads,
Where peaceful rivers, soft and slow,
Amid the verdant landscape flow.

JOSEPH ADDISON. 1712.

- 1 The Lord my pasture shall prepare,
And feed me with a shepherd's care;
His presence shall my wants supply,
And guard me with a watchful eye;
My noon-day walks he shall attend,
And all my midnight hours defend.

- 3 Though in the paths of death I tread,
With gloomy horrors overspread,
My steadfast heart shall fear no ill,
For thou, O Lord, art with me still:
Thy friendly rod shall give me aid,
And guide me through the dreadful shade.

ARR. FROM H. PARKER.

1. My soul, re - peat his praise, Whose mer - cies are so great,
Whose an - ger is so slow to rise, So read - y to a - bate.

ISAAC WATTS. 1719.

- 1 My soul, repeat his praise,
Whose mercies are so great,
Whose anger is so slow to rise,
So ready to abate.
- 2 God will not always chide;
And when his strokes are felt,
His strokes are fewer than our crimes
And lighter than our guilt.
- 3 High as the heavens are raised
Above the ground we tread,
So far the riches of his grace
Our highest thoughts exceed.
- 4 His power subdues our sins,
And his forgiving love,
Far as the east is from the west,
Doth all our guilt remove.

ISAAC WATTS. 1719.

- 1 The pity of the Lord,
To those that fear his name,
Is such as tender parents feel;
He knows our feeble frame.
- 2 He knows we are but dust,
Scattered with every breath;
His anger, like a rising wind,
Can send us swift to death.
- 3 Our days are as the grass,
Or like the morning flower;
When blasting winds sweep o'er the field,
It withers in an hour.
- 4 But thy compassions, Lord,
To endless years endure;
And children's children ever find
Thy words of promise sure.

1. God is the ref - uge of his saints, When storms of sharp dis - tress in - vade;
Ere we can of - fer our com - plaints, Be - hold him pres - ent with his aid.

ISAAC WATTS. 1719.

- 1 God is the refuge of his saints,
When storms of sharp distress invade;
Ere we can offer our complaints,
Behold him present with his aid.
- 2 Loud may the troubled ocean roar;
In sacred peace our souls abide,
While every nation, every shore,
Trembles and dreads the swelling tide.
- 3 There is a stream, whose gentle flow
Supplies the city of our God,
Life, love, and joy still gliding through,
And watering our divine abode.
- 4 That sacred stream, thy holy word,
Our grief allays, our fear controls;
Sweet peace thy promises afford,
And give new strength to fainting souls.

ISAAC WATTS. 1719.

- 1 With all my powers of heart and tongue,
I'll praise my Maker in my song;
Angels shall hear the notes I raise,
Approve the song and join the praise.
- 2 To God I cried, when troubles rose;
He heard me, and subdued my foes;
He did my rising fears control,
And strength diffused through all my soul.
- 3 Amid a thousand snares I stand,
Upheld and guarded by his hand;
His words my fainting soul revive,
And keep my dying faith alive.
- 4 I'll sing thy truth and mercy, Lord;
I'll sing the wonders of thy word;
Not all the works and names below
So much thy power and glory show.

80

JAMES HERVEY. 1745.

- 1 Since all the varying scenes of time
God's watchful eye surveys,
O who so wise to choose our lot,
Or to appoint our ways?
- 2 Good, when he gives, supremely good;
Nor less when he denies:
E'en crosses, from his sovereign hand,
Are blessings in disguise.
- 3 Why should we doubt a Father's love,
So constant and so kind?
To his unerring, gracious will
Be every wish resigned.

81

WM. COWPER. 1779.

- 1 God moves in a mysterious way
His wonders to perform;
He plants his footsteps in the sea,
And rides upon the storm.
- 2 Ye fearful saints, fresh courage take;
The clouds ye so much dread
Are big with mercy, and shall break
With blessing on your head.
- 3 Judge not the Lord by feeble sense,
But trust him for his grace;
Behind a frowning providence
He hides a smiling face.

- 4 His purposes will ripen fast,
Unfolding every hour;
The bud may have a bitter taste,
But sweet will be the flower.
- 5 Blind unbelief is sure to err,
And scan his work in vain;
God is his own interpreter,
And he will make it plain.

82

ISAAC WATTS. 1707.

- 1 Keep silence, all created things,
And wait your Maker's nod;
My soul stands trembling while she sings,
The honors of her God.
- 2 Life, death, and hell, and worlds unknown,
Hang on his firm decree;
He sits on no precarious throne,
Nor borrows leave to be.
- 3 His providence unfolds a book,
In which his counsels shine;
Each opening leaf, and every stroke,
Fulfills some deep design.
- 4 In thy fair book of life and grace,
O may I find my name,
Recorded in some humble place,
Beneath my Lord, the Lamb.

TATE AND BRADY. 1636.

- 1 Through all the changing scenes of life,
In trouble and in joy,
The praises of my God shall still
My heart and tongue employ.
- 2 The hosts of God encamp around
The dwellings of the just;
Protection he affords to all
Who make his name their trust.
- 3 O make but trial of his love!
Experience will decide
How blest are they, and only they,
Who in his truth confide.
- 4 Fear him, ye saints, and you will then
Have nothing else to fear:
Make you his service your delight,
He'll make your wants his care.

ISAAC WATTS. 1719.

- 1 Sweet is the memory of thy grace,
My God, my heavenly King;
Let age to age thy righteousness
In songs of glory sing.
- 2 God reigns on high, but ne'er confines
His goodness to the skies;
Through all the earth his bounty shines,
And every want supplies.

- 3 How kind are thy compassions, Lord!
How slow thine anger moves!
But soon he sends his pardoning word,
To cheer the souls he loves.
- 4 Sweet is the memory of thy grace,
My God, my heavenly King;
Let age to age thy righteousness

ANNE STEELE. 1760.

- 1 My God, my Father,—blissful name,—
O may I call thee mine!
May I with sweet assurance claim
A portion so divine!
- 2 This only can my fears control,
And bid my sorrows fly;
What harm can ever reach my soul,
Beneath my Father's eye?
- 3 Whate'er thy providence denies,
I calmly would resign;
For thou art good and just and wise;
O bend my will to thine!
- 4 Whate'er thy sacred will ordains,
O give me strength to bear!

ISAAC WATTS. 1707.

1 Now to the Lord a noble song!
Awake, my soul, awake, my tongue,
Hosanna to th' eternal name,
And all his boundless love proclaim.

2 See where it shines in Jesus' face,—
The brightest image of his grace;
God, in the person of his Son,
Has all his mightiest works outdone.

3 Grace! 'tis a sweet, a charming theme;
My thoughts rejoice at Jesus' name;
Ye angels, dwell upon the sound;
Ye heavens, reflect it to the ground.

4 O may I reach the happy place,
Where he unveils his lovely face,
His beauties there may I behold,
And sing his name to harps of gold.

ISAAC WATTS. 1719.

1 Bless, O my soul, the living God;
Call home thy thoughts that rove abroad:
Let all the powers within me join
In work and worship so divine.

2 Bless, O my soul, the God of grace:
His favors claim thy highest praise;
Let not the wonders he hath wrought
Be lost in silence, and forgot.

3 'Tis he, my soul, that sent his Son
To die for crimes which thou hast done;
He owns the ransom, and forgives
The hourly follies of our lives.

4 Let every land his power confess;

LUTHER. P. M.

MARTIN LUTHER. 1483-1546.

I. A mighty fortress is our God, A bulwark never fail - ing : Our Helper he, a-mid the flood
Of mor-tal ills pre-vail - ing. For still our ancient foe Doth seek to work his woe ;
His craft and power are great, And armed with cruel hate, On earth is not his e - qual.

MARTIN LUTHER. 1521.
Tr. F. H. HEDGE. 1853.

1 A mighty fortress is our God,
A bulwark never failing :
Our Helper he, amid the flood
Of mortal ills prevailing.
For still our ancient foe
Doth seek to work us woe ;
His craft and power are great,
And armed with cruel hate,
On earth is not his equal.

2 Did we in our own strength confide,
Our striving would be losing ;
Were not the right man on our side,
The man of God's own choosing.
Dost ask who that may be ?
Christ Jesus, it is he ;
Lord Sabaoth is his name,
From age to age the same,
And he must win the battle.

3 And though this world, with devils filled,
Should threaten to undo us ;
We will not fear, for God hath willed
His truth to triumph through us.
The prince of darkness grim,—
We tremble not for him ;
His rage we can endure,
For lo ! his doom is sure,—
One little word shall fell him !

4 That word above all earthly powers—
No thanks to them—abideth ;
The Spirit and the gifts are ours
Through him who with us sideth.
Let goods and kindred go,
This mortal life also :
The body they may kill :
God's truth abideth still,
His kingdom is forever.

H. W. BAKER. 1821-1877

1 Rejoice to-day with one accord,
Sing out with exultation ;
Rejoice and praise our mighty Lord,
Whose arm hath brought salvation ;
His works of love proclaim
The greatness of his name ;
For he is God alone,
Who hath his mercy shown ;
Let all his saints adore him.

2 When in distress to him we cried,
He heard our sad complaining ;
O trust in him, whate'er betide,
His love is all sustaining ;
Triumphant songs of praise
To him our hearts shall raise ;
Now every voice shall say,
" O praise our God away ;"
Let all his saints adore him.

But thou hast chosen me :
2 Thou from the sin that stained me
Washed me and set me free,

Pilgrim through this barren land:
I am weak, but thou art mighty,

ANON.

1 Sing, my soul, his wondrous love,
Who from yon bright throne above,
Ever watchful o'er our race,
Still to man extends his grace.

2 Heaven and earth by him were made,
All is by his scepter swayed;

And, to make our safety sure,
Guides us by his Spirit pure.

4 Sing, my soul, adore his name;

Praise him till he calls thee home,
Trust his love for all to come.

102

PHILIP DODDRIDGE. 1735.

- 1 Hark, the glad sound! the Saviour comes,
The Saviour promised long;
Let every heart prepare a throne,
And every voice a song.
- 2 He comes, the prisoner to release,
In Satan's bondage held;
The gates of brass before him burst,
The iron fetters yield.
- 3 He comes, the broken heart to bind,
The bleeding soul to cure,
And, with the treasures of his grace,
Enrich the humble poor.
- 4 Our glad hosannas, Prince of peace,
Thy welcome shall proclaim,
And heaven's eternal arches ring
With thy beloved name.

God, may we Ev-er-more be led by thee.

2 As with joyful steps they sped
To that lowly manger-bed,
There to bend the knee before
Him whom heaven and earth adore :
So may we with willing feet
Ever seek thy mercy-seat.

Did the guiding star behold ;
As with joy they hailed its light,

So, most gracious God, may we
Evermore be led by thee.

3 As they offered gifts most rare
At that manger rude and bare ;
So may we with holy joy,
Pure, and free from sin's alloy,
All our costliest treasures bring.

1 Come, ye lofty, come, ye lowly,
 Let your songs of gladness ring;
 In a stable lies the Holy,
 In a manger rests the King.
 Come, ye poor, no pomp or station
 Robes the child your hearts adore:

 Shares your want, is weak and poor.
 2 Let us bring our poor oblations,
 Thanks and love and faith and praise;
 Come, ye people, come, ye nations,
 One and all on him to gaze.
 Hark, the heaven of heavens is ringing,
 Christ the Lord to man is born!
 Are not all our hearts, too, singing,
 Welcome, welcome, happy morn?

1. It came up-on the midnight clear, That glorious song of old, From angels bend-ing near the earth To touch their harps of gold;

110

EDMUND H. SEARS. 1851.

- 1 It came upon the midnight clear,
 That glorious song of old,
 From angels bending near the earth
 To touch their harps of gold:
 "Peace to the earth, good-will to man,
 From heaven's all gracious King:"
 The earth in solemn stillness lay,
 To hear the angels sing.
- 2 Still through the cloven skies they come,
 With peaceful wings unfurled;
 And still their heavenly music floats
 O'er all the weary world;
 Above its sad and lowly plains
 They bend on hovering wing,
 And ever o'er its Babel sounds
 The blessed angels sing.

- 3 O ye, beneath life's crushing load,
 Whose forms are bending low,
 Who toil along the climbing way,
 With painful steps and slow,—
 Look up; for glad and golden hours
 Come swiftly on the wing;
 O rest beside the weary road,
 And hear the angels sing.
- 4 For, lo! the days are hastening on
 By prophet bards foretold,
 When with the ever-circling years
 Comes round the age of gold;
 When peace shall over all the earth
 Its ancient splendors fling,
 And the whole world give back the song
 Which now the angels sing.

2 Cold on his cradle the dew-drops are shining;
Low lies his head with the beasts of the stall;
Angels adore him, in slumber reclining,

3 Say, shall we yield him, in costly devotion,
Odors of Edom, and offerings divine?
Gems of the mountain, and pearls of the ocean,
Myrrh from the forest, or gold from the mine?

4 Vainly we offer each ample oblation;
Vainly with gifts would his favor secure;
Richer by far is the heart's adoration;
Dearer to God are the prayers of the poor.

SIR EDWARD DENNY. 1839.

- 1 What grace, O Lord, and beauty shone
 Around thy steps below ;
 What patient love was seen in all
 Thy life and death of woe !
- 2 For, ever on thy burdened heart
 A weight of sorrow hung ;
 Yet no ungentle, murmuring word
 Escaped thy silent tongue.
- 3 Thy foes might hate, despise, revile,
 Thy friends unfaithful prove ;
 Unwearied in forgiveness still,
 Thy heart could only love.
- 4 O give us hearts to love like thee !
 Like thee, O Lord, to grieve
 Far more for others' sins than all
 The wrongs that we receive.
- 3 Thou art the Life,—the rending tomb
 Proclaims thy conquering arm ;
 And those who put their trust in thee,
 Nor death nor hell shall harm.

 That truth to keep, that life to win,
 Whose joys eternal flow.

O sacred Head, what glory,
What bliss, till now was thine!
Yet, though despised and gory,

2 What thou, my Lord, hast suffered
Was all for sinners' gain;
Mine, mine was the transgression,
But thine the deadly pain:
Lo, here I fall, my Saviour!
'Tis I deserve thy place;
Look on me with thy favor,
Vouchsafe to me thy grace.

3 What language shall I borrow
To thank thee, dearest Friend,
For this thy dying sorrow,
Thy pity without end?
O make me thine forever;
And, should I fainting be,
Lord, let me never, never,
Outlive my love to thee!

4 Be near me when I'm dying,
O show thy cross to me!
And for some succor flying,
Come, Lord, and set me free!
These eyes, new faith receiving,
From Jesus shall not move;
For he who dies believing,
Dies safely through thy love.

SIR JOHN BOWRING. 1825.

1 In the cross of Christ I glory,
Towering o'er the wrecks of time;
All the light of sacred story
Gathers round its head sublime.

2 When the woes of life o'ertake me,
Hopes deceive and fears annoy,
Never shall the cross forsake me:
Lo! it glows with peace and joy.

3 When the sun of bliss is beaming
Light and love upon my way,
From the cross the radiance streaming,
Adds new luster to the day.

4 Bane and blessing, pain and pleasure,
By the cross are sanctified;
Peace is there, that knows no measure,
Joys that through all time abide.

{ 'It is fin - ished,' is its bur - den, } Par - don to the far and near.

127

HORATIUS BONAR. 1866.

- 1 From the cross the blood is falling,
And to us a voice is calling,
Like a trumpet silver-clear;
'Tis the voice announcing pardon,
"It is finished," is its burden,
Pardon to the far and near.
- 2 Peace that precious Blood is sealing,
All our wounds forever healing,
And removing every load;
Words of peace that Voice has spoken
Peace that shall no more be broken,
Peace between the soul and God.

- 3 God is love;—we read the writing
Traced so deeply in the sniting
Of the glorious Surety there.
God is Light;—we see it beaming,
Like a heavenly dayspring gleaming,
So divinely sweet and fair.
- 4 Cross of shame, yet tree of glory,
Round thee winds the one great story,
Of this ever-changing earth;
Center of the true and holy,
Grave of human sin and folly,
Womb of Nature's second birth.

- 1 Inscribed upon the cross we see,
In glowing letters, "God is love;"
He bears our sins upon the tree;
He brings us mercy from above.
- 2 The cross! it takes our guilt away;
It holds the fainting spirit up;

- It cheers with hope the gloomy day,
And sweetens every bitter cup;—
- 3 The balm of life, the cure of woe,
The measure and the pledge of love,
The sinner's refuge here below,
The angel's theme in heaven above.

129

ISAAC WATTS. 1707.

- 2 Here's love and grief beyond degree :
The Lord of glory dies for men !
But lo ! what sudden joys we see, —
Jesus, the dead, revives again !
- 3 The rising God forsakes the tomb ;
Up to his Father's court he flies ;
Cherubic legions guard him home,
And shout him welcome to the skies.
- 4 Break off your tears, ye saints, and tell
How high our great Deliverer reigns ;
Sing how he spoiled the hosts of hell ;
And led the tyrant Death in chains.
- 5 Say, " Live forever, glorious King ;
Born to redeem, and strong to save ! "
Then ask, " O Death, where is thy sting ?
And where thy victory, boasting Grave ? "

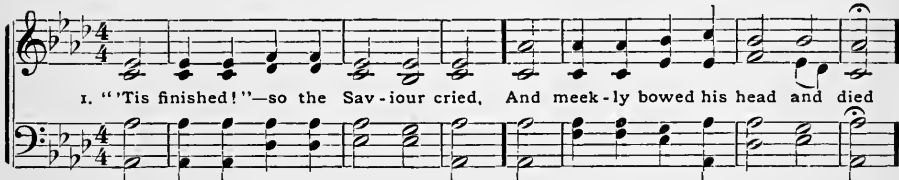

130

SAMUEL STENNETT. 1778.

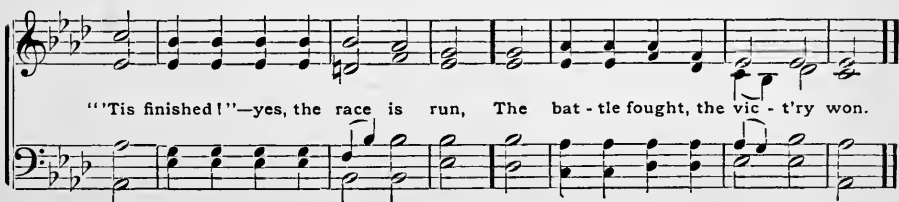

- 1 " 'Tis finished ! " —so the Saviour cried,
And meekly bowed his head and died :
" 'Tis finished ! " —yes, the race is run,
The battle fought, the victory won.
- 2 " 'Tis finished ! " —this his dying groan
Shall sins of deepest hue atone,
And millions be redeemed from death
By Jesus' last, expiring breath.
- 3 " 'Tis finished ! " —Heaven is reconciled,
And all the powers of darkness spoiled ;
Peace, love, and happiness again
Return, and dwell with sinful men.
- 4 " 'Tis finished ! " —let the joyful sound
Be heard through all the nations round :
" 'Tis finished ! " —let the triumph rise,
And swell the chorus of the skies.

DIADEMATA. S. M. D.

SIR GEORGE J. FLVEY. 1816—

1. Crown him with ma - ny crowns, The Lamb up - on his throne; Hark! how the heavenly an - them drowns All mu - sic but its own! A - wake, my soul, and sing Of him who died for thee; And hail him as thy matchless King Through all e - ter - ni - ty.

MATTHEW BRIDGES. 1847.

1 Crown him with many crowns,
The Lamb upon his throne;
Hark! how the heavenly anthem drowns
All music but its own!
Awake, my soul, and sing
Of him who died for thee;
And hail him as thy matchless King
Through all eternity.

2 Crown him, the Lord of Love:
Behold his hands and side,
Rich wounds yet visible above
In beauty glorified:
No angel in the sky
Can fully bear that sight,
But downward bends his burning eye
At mysteries so bright.

3 Crown him, the Lord of years,
The Potentate of time,
Creator of the rolling spheres,
Ineffably sublime:
Glassed in a sea of light,
Whose everlasting waves
Reflect his form—the Infinite—
Who lives and loves and saves.

THOMAS KELLY. 1836.

1 Hark! ten thousand harps and voices
Sound the note of praise above;
Jesus reigns, and heaven rejoices;
Jesus reigns, the God of love:
See, he sits on yonder throne;
Jesus rules the world alone.

2 Jesus, hail! whose glory brightens
All above, and gives it worth:
Lord of life, thy smile enlightens,
Cheers, and charms thy saints on earth:
When we think of love like thine,
Lord, we own it love divine.

3 King of glory, reign forever;
Thine an everlasting crown:
Nothing from thy love shall sever
Those whom thou hast made thine own;
Happy objects of thy grace,
Destined to behold thy face.

4 Saviour, hasten thine appearing;
Bring, O bring the glorious day,
When, the awful summons hearing,
Heaven and earth shall pass away:
Then, with golden harps we'll sing,
"Glory, glory to our King."

WINCHESTER NEW. L. M.

GERMAN. 1690.

1. Now for a tune of loft-y praise To great Je-ho-vah's e-qual Son:

A-wake, my voice, in heavenly lays, And tell the won-ders he hath done.

ISAAC WATTS. 1707.

- 1 Now for a tune of lofty praise
To great Jehovah's equal Son:
Awake, my voice, in heavenly lays,
And tell the wonders he hath done.
- 2 Sing how he left the worlds of light,
And those bright robes he wore above:
How swift and joyful was his flight,
On wings of everlasting love.
- 3 Deep in the shades of gloomy death,
Th' almighty Captive prisoner lay;
Th' almighty Captive left the earth,
And rose to everlasting day.
- 4 Among a thousand harps and songs,
Jesus, the God, exalted reigns:
His sacred name fills all their tongues,
And echoes through the heavenly plains.

156

ISAAC WATTS. 1707.

- 1 What equal honors shall we bring
To thee, O Lord our God, the Lamb,
When all the notes that angels sing
Are far inferior to thy name?
- 2 Worthy is he that once was slain,
The Prince of life that groaned and died,
Worthy to rise, and live and reign
At his almighty Father's side.
- 3 Honor immortal must be paid,
Instead of scandal and of scorn;
While glory shines around his head,
He wears a crown without a thorn.
- 4 Blessings forever on the Lamb,
Who bore the curse for wretched men!
Let angels sound his sacred name,
And every creature say "Amen."

LOVING KINDNESS. L. M.

WESTERN MELODY.

1. A - wake, my soul, in joy - ful lays, And sing thy great Re - deemer's praise;
He just - ly claims a song from me! His lov - ing kind - ness, O how free!
His lov - ing kindness, lov - ing kindness, His lov - ing kind - ness, O how free!

SAMUEL MEDLEY. 1787.

1 Awake, my soul, in joyful lays,
And sing thy great Redeemer's praise;
He justly claims a song from me!
His loving kindness, O how free!

2 He saw me ruined by the fall,
Yet loved me, notwithstanding all;
He saved me from my lost estate;
His loving kindness, O how great!

3 I often feel my sinful heart
Prone from my Saviour to depart;
But though I oft have him forgot,
His loving kindness changes not.

4 Soon shall I pass the gloomy vale;
Soon all my mortal powers must fail:
O, may my last, expiring breath
His loving kindness sing in death.

158

WILLIAM HAMMOND. 1749.

1 Awake, and sing the song
Of Moses and the Lamb;
Wake, every heart and every tongue,
To praise the Saviour's name.

2 Sing of his dying love;
Sing of his rising power;
Sing, how he intercedes above
For those whose sins he bore.

3 Sing on your heavenly way,
Ye ransomed sinners, sing;
Sing on, rejoicing every day,
In Christ, th' eternal King.

4 Soon shall we hear him say,—
“Ye blessed children, come;”
Soon will he call us hence away,
To our eternal home.

ST. MICHAEL. S. M.

JOHN DAYE. 1522-1584.

ITALIAN HYMN. 6s, 4s.

FELICI GIARDINI. 1716-1796.

1. Glo-ry to God on high, Let praises fill the sky! Praise ye his name. Angels his name a-dore, Who all our sorrows bore, And saints cry ev - er-more, "Worthy the Lamb!"

JAMES ALLEN. 1761.

- 1 Glory to God on high,
Let praises fill the sky!
Praise ye his name.
Angels his name adore,
Who all our sorrows bore,
And saints cry evermore,
"Worthy the Lamb!"
- 2 All they around the throne
Cheerfully join in one,
Praising his name.
We who have felt his blood
Sealing our peace with God,
Spread his dear fame abroad:
"Worthy the Lamb!"
- 3 Join all the human race,
Our Lord and God to bless;
Praise ye his name!
In him we will rejoice,
Making a cheerful noise,
And say with heart and voice,
"Worthy the Lamb!"
- 4 Though we must change our place,
Our souls shall never cease
Praising his name;
To him we'll tribute bring,
Laud him our gracious King,
And through all ages sing,
"Worthy the Lamb!"

160

JAMES BODEN. 1801.

- 1 Come, all ye saints of God,
Through all the earth abroad,
Spread Jesus' fame:
Tell what his love hath done;
Trust in his name alone;
Shout to his lofty throne,
"Worthy the Lamb!"
- 2 Hence, gloomy doubts and fears!
Dry up your mournful tears;
Join our glad theme:
Beauty for ashes bring;
Strike each melodious string;
Join heart and voice to sing,
"Worthy the Lamb!"
- 3 Hark! how the choirs above,
Filled with the Saviour's love,
Dwell on his name!
There, too, may we be found,
With light and glory crowned,
While all the heavens resound,
"Worthy the Lamb!"

DOXOLOGY.

To God, the Father, Son,

- 1 Plunged in a gulf of dark despair,
We wretched sinners lay,
Without one cheerful beam of hope,
Or spark of glimmering day.

Beheld our helpless grief;
He saw, and,—O, amazing love!—
He flew to our relief.
- 3 Down from the shining seats above,
With joyful haste he fled,
Entered the grave in mortal flesh,
And dwelt among the dead.
- 4 O for this love, let rocks and rills

1 Majestic sweetness sits enthroned
Upon the Saviour's brow;

3 To him I owe my life and breath,
And all the joys I have;
He makes me triumph over death,
He saves me from the grave.

4 Since from his bounty I receive
Such proofs of love divine,
Had I a thousand hearts to give,

1 How sweet the name of Jesus sounds
In a believer's ear!
It soothes his sorrows, heals his wounds,

2 It makes the wounded spirit whole,
And calms the troubled breast;

But when I see thee as thou art,

Welcome to his sacred rest;

Help me walk from day to day,

- 1 Crown his head with endless blessing,

 With compassions never ceasing,
 Comes salvation to proclaim.
 Hail, ye saints, who know his favor,
 Who within his gates are found;
 Hail, ye saints, the exalted Saviour,
 Let his courts with praise resound.
- 2 Jesus, thee our Saviour hailing,
 Thee our God in praise we own;
 Highest honors, never failing,
 Rise eternal round thy throne;
 Now, ye saints, his power confessing
 In your grateful strains adore:
 For his mercy, never ceasing,
 Freely flows for evermore.

ROBERT ROBINSON. 1757.

- 2 Here I raise my Ebenezer;
 Hither by thy help I'm come;
 And I hope, by thy good pleasure,
 Safely to arrive at home:
 Jesus sought me when a stranger,
 Wandering from the fold of God;
 He to save my soul from danger,
 Interposed his precious blood.
- 3 O, to grace how great a debtor
 Daily I'm constrained to be!
 Let that grace, Lord, like a fetter,
 Bind my wandering heart to thee.
 Prone to wander, Lord, I feel it;
 Prone to leave the God I love;
 Here's my heart; Lord, take and seal it;
 Seal it from thy courts above.

3 In vain we tune our formal songs;
In vain we strive to rise;
Hosannas languish on our tongues,
And our devotion dies.

Born in the image of his Son,
A new, peculiar race.

3 The Spirit, like some heavenly wind,
Breathes on the sons of flesh,
Creates anew the carnal mind,

'Tis thine, eternal Spirit, thine
To form the heart anew.

3 'Tis thine the passions to recall,
And upward bid them rise,
And make the scales of error fall
From reason's darkened eyes;

4 To chase the shades of death away,
And bid the sinner live;

A beam of heaven, a vital ray,

CHARLES WESLEY. 1749

- 1 Stay, thou insulted Spirit, stay,
Though I have done thee such despite;
Cast not a sinner quite away,
Nor take thine everlasting flight.
- 2 Though I have most unfaithful been
Of all who e'er thy grace received,
Ten thousand times thy goodness seen,
Ten thousand times thy goodness grieved;
- 3 Yet, O, the chief of sinners spare,
In honor of my great High Priest;
Nor, in thy righteous anger, swear
I shall not see thy people's rest.
- 4 My weary soul, O God, release;
Uphold me with thy gracious hand;
O guide me into perfect peace,
And bring me to the promised land.

202

SIMON BROWNE. 1720.

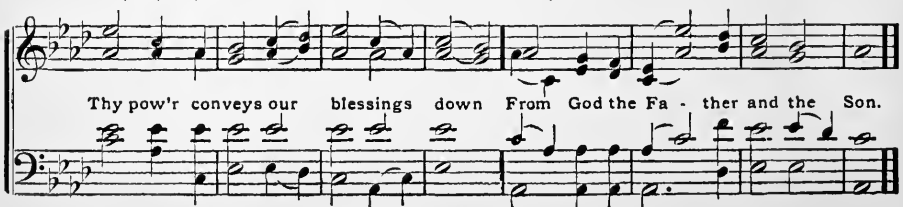

- 1 Come, gracious Spirit, heavenly Dove,
With light and comfort from above;
Be thou our Guardian, thou our Guide;
O'er every thought and step preside.
- 2 To us the light of truth display,
And make us know and choose thy way;
Plant holy fear in every heart,
That we from God may ne'er depart.
- 3 Lead us to holiness, the road
Which we must take to dwell with God;
Lead us to Christ, the living way;
Nor let us from his pastures stray.
- 4 Lead us to God, our final rest,
To be with him forever blest;
Lead us to heaven, its bliss to share,
Fullness of joy forever there.

1 O thou that hearest prayer,
Attend our humble cry,
And let thy servants share
Thy blessing from on high:
We plead the promise of thy word;
Grant us thy Holy Spirit, Lord.

2 If earthly parents hear
Their children when they cry;
If they, with love sincere,

Their varied wants supply,—
Much more wilt thou thy love display,
And answer when thy children pray.

3 Our heavenly Father, thou;
We, children of thy grace;
O let thy Spirit now
Descend and fill the place:
So shall we feel the heavenly flame,
And all unite to praise thy name.

1 Eternal Spirit, we confess
And sing the wonders of thy grace;
Thy power conveys our blessings down
From God the Father and the Son.

2 Enlightened by thine heavenly ray,
Our shades and darkness turn to day;
Thine inward teachings make us know
Our danger and our refuge too.

3 Thy power and glory work within,
And break the chains of reigning sin;
Our wild, imperious lusts subdue,
And form our wretched hearts anew.

4 The troubled conscience knows thy voice:
Thy cheering words awake our joys;
Thy words allay the stormy wind,
And calm the surges of the mind.

M. M. WELLS. 1858.

1 Holy Spirit, faithful Guide,
Ever near the Christian's side,
Gently lead us by the hand,
Pilgrims in a desert land;
Weary souls fore'er rejoice,
While they hear that sweetest voice,
Whispering softly, wanderer, come!
Follow me, I'll guide thee home.

2 Ever present, truest Friend,
Ever near thine aid to lend,
Leave us not to doubt and fear,
Groping on in darkness drear.

When the storms are raging sore,
Hearts grow faint, and hopes give o'er—
Whisper softly, wanderer, come!
Follow me, I'll guide thee home.

3 When our days of toil shall cease,
Waiting still for sweet release,
Nothing left but heaven and prayer,
Wondering if our names are there;
Wading deep the dismal flood,
Pleading naught but Jesus' blood.
Whisper softly, wanderer, come!
Follow me, I'll guide thee home.

1 Come, Holy Spirit, come;
Let thy bright beams arise;
Dispel the sorrow from our minds,
The darkness from our eyes.

2 Convince us all of sin;
Then lead to Jesus' blood,
And to our wondering view reveal
The mercies of our God.

3 Revive our drooping faith,
Our doubts and fears remove,

And kindle in our breasts the flame
Of never-dying love.

4 'Tis thine to cleanse the heart,
To sanctify the soul,
To pour fresh life in every part,
And new-create the whole.

SAMSON OCCUM. 1760.

- 1 Awaked by Sinai's awful sound,
My soul in bonds of guilt I found,
And knew not where to go;
Eternal truth did loud proclaim,
"The sinner must be born again,
Or sink in endless woe."
- 2 Amazed I stood, but could not tell
Which way to shun the gates of hell,
For death and hell drew near;
I strove, indeed, but strove in vain:
"The sinner must be born again"
Still sounded in my ear.
- 3 When to the law I trembling fled,
It poured its curses on my head;
I no relief could find:
This fearful truth increased my pain:
"The sinner must be born again"
O'erwhelmed my tortured mind.
- 4 But while I thus in anguish lay,
Jesus of Nazareth passed that way,
And felt his pity move:
The sinner, by his justice slain,
Now by his grace is born again,
And sings redeeming love.

Removes me to yon heavenly place,
Or shuts me up in hell.
- 2 O God, mine inmost soul convert,
And deeply on my thoughtful heart
Eternal things impress;
Give me to feel their solemn weight
And tremble on the brink of fate,
And wake to righteousness.
- 3 Before me place, in dread array,
The pomp of that tremendous day
When thou with clouds shalt come
To judge the nations at thy bar;
And tell me, Lord, shall I be there
To meet a joyful doom?
- 4 Then, Saviour, then my soul receive,
Transported from this vale, to live
And reign with thee above,
Where faith is sweetly lost in sight,
And hope in full, supreme delight,
And everlasting love.

On thy kind arms I fall;
Be thou my strength and righteousness,
My Saviour and my all.

- 1 When wounded sore, the stricken soul
Lies bleeding and unbound,
One only hand, a pierced hand,
Can heal the sinner's wound.
- 2 When sorrow swells the laden breast,
And tears of anguish flow,
One only heart, a broken heart,
Can feel the sinner's woe.
- 3 When penitence has wept in vain
O'er some dark spot within,
One only stream, a stream of blood,
Can wash away the sin.

His hand that brings relief,
His heart that knows our every joy,

1. How sweetly flowed the gos - pel sound From lips of gen - tle - ness and grace,
When listening thou - sands gath - ered round, And joy and glad - ness filled the place!

SIR JOHN BOWRING. 1825.

- 1 How sweetly flowed the gospel sound
From lips of gentleness and grace,
When listening thousands gathered round,
And joy and gladness filled the place!
- 2 From heaven he came, of heaven he spoke,
To heaven he led his followers' way;
Dark clouds of gloomy night he broke,
Unveiling an immortal day.
- 3 "Come, wanderers, to my Father's home,
Come, all ye weary ones, and rest :"
Yes, sacred Teacher, we will come,
Obey thee, love thee, and be blest.
- 4 Decay, then, tenements of dust;
Pillars of earthly pride, decay;
A nobler mansion waits the just,
And Jesus has prepared the way.

ISAAC WATTS. 1709.

- 1 Not to condemn the sons of men,
Did Christ, the Son of God, appear;
No weapons in his hands are seen,
No flaming sword nor thunder there.
- 2 Such was the pity of our God,
He loved the race of man so well,
He sent his Son to bear our load
Of sins, and save our souls from hell.
- 3 Sinners, believe the Saviour's word;
Trust in his mighty name, and live;
A thousand joys his lips afford,
His hands a thousand blessings give.

1. There is a fount - ain filled with blood, Drawn from Im-man-uel's veins; And sinners, plunged beneath that flood, Lose all their guilty stains, Lose all their guilty stains.

231

WILLIAM COWPER. 1779.

1 There is a fountain filled with blood,
Drawn from Immanuel's veins;
And sinners, plunged beneath that flood,
Lose all their guilty stains.

2 The dying thief rejoiced to see
That fountain in his day;
And there have I, as vile as he,
Washed all my sins away.

3 Thou dying Lamb, thy precious blood
Shall never lose its power,
Till all the ransomed church of God
Be saved to sin no more.

4 E'er since, by faith, I saw the stream
Thy flowing wounds supply,
Redeeming love has been my theme,
And shall be till I die.

5 And when this feeble, faltering tongue
Lies silent in the grave,
Then, in a nobler, sweeter song,
I'll sing thy power to save.

232

ANNE STEELE. 1760.

1 The Saviour calls; let every ear
Attend the heavenly sound;
Ye doubting souls, dismiss your fear;
Hope smiles reviving round.

2 For every thirsty, longing heart
Here streams of bounty flow;
And life and health and bliss impart,
To banish mortal woe.

3 Dear Saviour, draw reluctant hearts;
To thee let sinners fly,
And take the bliss thy love imparts,
And drink, and never die.

To fill an empty mind,—

But we arise, by grace divine,

235

CHARLES WESLEY. 1750.

1 Blow ye the trumpet, blow,
The gladly solemn sound;
Let all the nations know,
To earth's remotest bound,
The year of jubilee is come;

2 Exalt the Lamb of God,
The sin-aton-ing Lamb;
Redemption by his blood
Through all the lands proclaim:
The year of jubilee is come;
Return, ye ransomed sinners, home.

3 The gospel trumpet hear,
The news of pardoning grace:
Ye happy souls, draw near;
Behold your Saviour's face:
The year of jubilee is come;
Return, ye ransomed sinners, home.

4 Jesus, our great High Priest,

1. Look away to Je-sus, Soul by woe oppressed; 'Twas for thee he suffered, Come to him and rest;

- 1 Look away to Jesus,
Soul by woe oppressed;
'Twas for thee he suffered,
Come to him and rest;
All thy griefs he carried,
All thy sins he bore;
Look away to Jesus,
Trust him evermore.
- 2 Look away to Jesus,
When the skies are fair;
Calm seas have their dangers,
Mariner, beware!

Earthly joys are fleeting,
Going as they came,
Look away to Jesus,
Evermore the same.

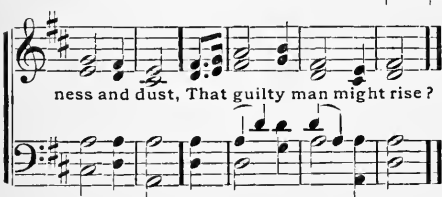

- 3 When, amid the music
Of the endless feast,
Saints will sing his praises,
Thine shall not be least;
Then, amid the glories
Of the crystal sea,
Look away to Jesus,
Through eternity.

2 Yes, the Redeemer left his throne,
His radiant throne on high,—
Surprising mercy! love unknown!
To suffer, bleed, and die.

- 3 He took the dying traitor's place,
And suffered in his stead;
For sinful man,—O wondrous grace!—
For sinful man he bled.

4 O Lord, what heavenly wonders dwell
In thine atoning blood!
By this are sinners saved from hell,
And rebels brought to God.

How long will God forbear?
Where does hope end, and where begin

- 1 Broad is the road that leads to death,
And thousands walk together there;
But wisdom shows a narrow path,
With here and there a traveler.
- 2 "Deny thyself and take thy cross,"
Is the Redeemer's great command:
Nature must count her gold but dross,
If she would gain this heavenly land.
- 3 The fearful soul that tires and faints,
And walks the ways of God no more,
Is but esteemed almost a saint,

Create my heart entirely new,—
Which hypocrites could ne'er attain,
Which false apostates never knew.

250

PHILIP DODDRIDGE. 1755.

- 1 Why will ye waste on trifling cares
That life which God's compassion spares;
While, in the various range of thought,
The one thing needful is forgot?
- 2 Shall God invite you from above?
Shall Jesus urge his dying love?
Shall troubled conscience give you pain,
And all these pleas unite in vain?
- 3 Not so your eyes will always view
Those objects which you now pursue;
Not so will heaven and hell appear,
When death's decisive hour is near.
- 4 Almighty God, thy grace impart;
Fix deep conviction on each heart;
Nor let us waste on trifling cares
That life which thy compassion spares.

- 2 Soon, borne on time's most rapid wing,
Shall death command you to the grave,
Before his bar your spirits bring,
And none be found to hear or save.
- 3 In that lone land of deep despair,
No Sabbath's heavenly light shall rise,
No God regard your bitter prayer,
No Saviour call you to the skies.

How sweet the gospel's charming sound!

And I my heart the closer lock?
He still is waiting to receive,
And shall I dare his Spirit grieve?
- 3 God calling yet! and shall I give
No heed, but still in bondage live?
I wait, but he does not forsake;
He calls me still! my heart, awake!
- 4 God calling yet! I can not stay;
My heart I yield without delay:
Vain world, farewell; from thee I part;
The voice of God hath reached my heart.

255

JOSEPH GRIGG. 1765.

- 1 Behold a Stranger at the door:
He gently knocks, has knocked before;
Has waited long, is waiting still:
You treat no other friend so ill.
- 2 O lovely attitude! he stands
With melting heart and laden hands:
O matchless kindness! and he shows
This graceless kindness to his foes.

- 3 Rise, touched with gratitude divine,
Turn out his enemy and thine;
Turn out thy soul-enslaving sin,
And let the heavenly stranger in.
- 4 Admit him, ere his anger burn—
His feet departed, ne'er return:
Admit him, or the hour's at hand
You'll at his door rejected stand.

ISAAC WATTS. 1709.

- 1 "Come hither, all ye weary souls,
Ye heavy-laden sinners, come;
I'll give you rest from all your toils,
And raise you to my heavenly home.
- 2 "They shall find rest who learn of me:
I'm of a meek and lowly mind;
But passion rages like the sea,
And pride is restless as the wind.
- 3 "Blest is the man whose shoulders take
My yoke, and bear it with delight:
My yoke is easy to the neck;
My grace shall make the burden light."
- 4 Jesus, we come at thy command;
With faith and hope and humble zeal,
Resign our spirits to thy hand,
To mold and guide us at thy will.

1 When thy mortal life is fled,
When the death-shades o'er thee spread,
When is finished thy career,
Sinner, where wilt thou appear?

2 When the world has passed away,
When draws near the judgment-day,
When the awful trump shall sound,
Say, O where wilt thou be found?

3 When the Judge descends in light,
Clothed in majesty and might,
When the wicked quail with fear,
Where, O where wilt thou appear?

4 What shall soothe thy bursting heart,
When the saints and thou must part?
When the good with joy are crowned,
Sinner, where wilt thou be found?

Quickly to the Saviour fly:
Then shall peace thy spirit cheer;
Then in heaven shalt thou appear.

Covered with a gore of blood;

Crucified th' eternal Son.
- 2 Yes, thy sins have done the deed,
Driven the nails that fixed him there,
Crowned with thorns his sacred head,

- Plunged into his side the spear,
Made his soul a sacrifice;
While for sinful man he dies.

GEORGE CRABBE. 1807.

- 1 Pilgrim, burdened with thy sin,
Come the way to Zion's gate;
There, till mercy speaks within,
Knock, and weep, and watch, and wait:
Knock—he knows the sinner's cry;
Weep—he loves the mourner's tears;
Watch, for saving grace is nigh;
Wait, till heavenly grace appears.
- 2 Hark! it is the Saviour's voice—
“Welcome, pilgrim, to thy rest!”
Now within the gate rejoice,
Safe, and owned, and bought, and blest:

- Safe, from all the lures of vice;
Owned, by joys the contrite know;
Bought by love, and life the price;
Blest, the mighty debt to owe.
- 3 Weary pilgrim! what for thee
In a world like this remains?
From thy guarded breast shall flee
Fear, and shame, and doubts, and pains:
Fear, the hope of heaven shall fly;
Shame, from glory's view retire;
Doubt, in full belief, shall die;
Pain, in endless bliss, expire.

 Prayers rise from hearts so dear;
 O wanderer, come!
- 3 "Almost persuaded," harvest is past!
 "Almost persuaded," doom comes at last!
 "Almost" can not avail;
 "Almost" is but to fail!
 Sad, sad that bitter wail,—
 "Almost," but lost!

1 Just as I am, without one plea,
But that thy blood was shed for me,
And that thou bidd'st me come to thee,
O Lamb of God, I come!

2 Just as I am, and waiting not
To rid my soul of one dark blot,
To thee, whose blood can cleanse each spot,
O Lamb of God, I come!

3 Just as I am, though tossed about
With many a conflict, many a doubt,
Fightings within, and fears without,
O Lamb of God, I come!

4 Just as I am,—poor, wretched, blind;
Sight, riches, healing of the mind,
Yea, all I need, in thee to find,
O Lamb of God, I come!

5 Just as I am,—thou wilt receive,
Wilt welcome, pardon, cleanse, relieve;
Because thy promise I believe,
O Lamb of God, I come!

6 Just as I am,—thy love unknown
Has broken every barrier down;
Now to be thine, yea, thine alone,
O Lamb of God, I come!

JOSEPH HART. 1759.

1 O for a glance of heavenly day,
To take this stubborn heart away,
And melt, with beams of love divine,
This heart, this frozen heart of mine!

2 The rocks can rend; the earth can quake;
The seas can roar; the mountains shake:
Of feeling, all things show some sign,
But this unfeeling heart of mine.

3 But power divine can do the deed;
And, Lord, that power I greatly need;
Thy Spirit can from dross refine,
And melt and change this heart of mine.

4 O Breath of life, breathe on my soul!
On me let streams of mercy roll;
Now melt, with rays of love divine,
This heart, this frozen heart of mine.

ISAAC WATTS. 1719.

1 A broken heart, my God, my King,
Is all the sacrifice I bring :
The God of grace will ne'er despise
A broken heart for sacrifice.

2 My soul lies humbled in the dust,
And owns thy dreadful sentence just;
Look down, O Lord, with pitying eye,
And save the soul condemned to die.

3 Then will I teach the world thy ways;
Sinners shall learn thy sovereign grace;
I'll lead them to my Saviour's blood,
And they shall praise a pardoning God.

4 O may thy love inspire my tongue!
Salvation shall be all my song;
And all my powers shall join to bless
The Lord, my strength and righteousness.

286

CORNELIUS ELVEN. 1852.

1 With broken heart and contrite sigh,
A trembling sinner, Lord, I cry;
Thy pardoning grace is rich and free :
O God be merciful to me!

2 I smite upon my troubled breast,
With deep and conscious guilt oppressed;
Christ and his cross my only plea :
O God, be merciful to me!

3 Far off I stand with tearful eyes,
Nor dare uplift them to the skies;
But thou dost all my anguish see :
O God, be merciful to me!

4 And when redeemed from sin and hell,
With all the ransomed throng I dwell,
My raptured song shall ever be,
God hath been merciful to me!

1 Jesus, the sinner's Friend, to thee,
Lost and undone, for aid I flee;
Weary of earth, myself, and sin,
Open thine arms and take me in.

2 Pity and save my ruined soul;
'Tis thou alone canst make me whole;
Dark, till in me thine image shine,
And lost I am till thou art mine.

3 At last I own it can not be
That I should fit myself for thee:
Here, then, to thee I all resign;
Thine is the work, and only thine.

4 What can I say thy grace to move?
Lord, I am sin,—but thou art love:
I give up every plea beside,
Lord, I am lost,—but thou hast died!

1 Show pity, Lord; O Lord, forgive;
Let a repenting rebel live;
Are not thy mercies large and free?
May not a sinner trust in thee?

2 My crimes, though great, can not surpass
The power and glory of thy grace:
Great God, thy nature hath no bound;
So let thy pardoning love be found.

3 O wash my soul from every sin,
And make my guilty conscience clean;
Here, on my heart, the burden lies,
And past offenses pain mine eyes.

4 Yet save a trembling sinner, Lord,
Whose hope, still hovering round thy word,
Would light on some sweet promise there,
Some sure support against despair.

WILLIAM B. COLLYER. 1812.

And seek an injured Father's face;
Those warm desires that in thee burn
Were kindled by redeeming grace.

2 Return, my wandering soul, return,
And seek a Father's melting heart;
His pitying eyes thy grief discern,
His heavenly balm shall heal thy smart.

3 Return, my wandering soul, return,
Thy dying Saviour bids thee live;
Go, view his bleeding side, and learn
How freely Jesus can forgive.

4 Return, my wandering soul, return,
And wipe away the falling tear;
'Tis God who says, "No longer mourn;"
'Tis mercy's voice invites thee near.

- 1 Approach, my soul, the mercy-seat
Where Jesus answers prayer;
There humbly fall before his feet,
For none can perish there.
- 2 Thy promise is my only plea,
With this I venture nigh;
Thou callest burdened souls to thee,
And such, O Lord, am I.
- 3 Bowed down beneath a load of sin,
By Satan sorely prest,
By war without, and fear within,
I come to thee for rest.
- 4 Be thou my Shield and Hiding-place,
That, sheltered near thy side,
I may my fierce accuser face,
And tell him, thou hast died.

291

ISAAC WATTS. 1709.

- 1 Dearest of all the names above,
My Saviour and my God,
Who can resist thy heavenly love,
Or trifle with thy blood?
- 2 'Tis by the merits of thy death
The Father smiles again;
'Tis by thine interceding breath
The Spirit dwells with men.

- 3 Till God in human flesh I see,
My thoughts no comfort find;
The holy, just, and sacred Three
Are terrors to my mind.
- 4 But if Immanuel's face appear,
My hope, my joy, begin;
His name forbids my slavish fear;
His grace removes my sin.

To pay the debt I owe,
Tears should from both my weeping eyes
In ceaseless torrents flow.
- 3 But no such sacrifice I plead
To expiate my guilt;
No tears but those which thou hast shed,
No blood but thou hast spilt.
- 4 Think of thy sorrows, dearest Lord!
And all my sins forgive;
Justice will well approve the word
That bids the sinner live.

CHARLES WESLEY. 1741.

1 Father, I stretch my hands to thee;
No other help I know;
If thou withdraw thyself from me,
Ah, whither shall I go?

2 What did thine only Son endure
Before I drew my breath!
What pain, what labor, to secure
My soul from endless death!

3 Author of faith, to thee I lift
My weary, longing eyes;
O may I now receive that gift!
My soul, without it, dies.

2 I saw one hanging on a tree,
In agonies and blood;
He fixed his languid eyes on me,
As near his cross I stood.

3 O never, till my latest breath,
Shall I forget that look!
It seemed to charge me with his death,
Though not a word he spoke.

4 A second look he gave, which said,
"I freely all forgive;
This blood is for thy ransom paid;
I died that thou mayst live."

God hears thy sighs and counts thy tears;
God shall lift up thy head.
- 2 Through waves, and clouds, and storms,
He gently clears thy way;
Wait thou his time; so shall this night
Soon end in joyous day.
- 3 What though thou rulest not!
Yet heaven, and earth, and hell
Proclaim, God sitteth on the throne,
And ruleth all things well.
- 4 Far, far above thy thought
His counsel shall appear,
When fully he the work has wrought,
That caused thy needless fear.

HENRY FRANCIS LYTE. 1834.

- 1 My spirit on thy care,
Blest Saviour, I recline;
Thou wilt not leave me to despair,
For thou art love divine.
- 2 In thee I place my trust;
On thee I calmly rest:
I know thee good, I know thee just,
And count thy choice the best.

- 3 Whate'er events betide,
Thy will they all perform;
Safe in thy breast my head I hide,
Nor fear the coming storm.
- 4 Let good or ill befall,
It must be good for me,—
Secure of having thee in all,
Of having all in thee.

A. M. TOPLADY. 1772.

- 1 Your harps, ye trembling saints,
Down from the willows take,
Loud to the praise of love divine
Bid every string awake.
- 2 Though in a foreign land,
We are not far from home;
And nearer to our house above
We every moment come.
- 3 His grace will to the end
Stronger and brighter shine;
Nor present things, nor things to come,
Shall quench the spark divine.
- 4 When we in darkness walk,
Nor feel the heavenly flame,
Then is the time to trust our God,
And rest upon his name.

COUNT ZINZENDORF. 1721.
Tr. by JANE B. BORTHWICK. 1853.

1 Jesus, still lead on,
Till our rest be won;
And although the way be cheerless,
We will follow, calm and fearless:
Guide us by thy hand
To our Fatherland.

2 If the way be drear,
If the foe be near,
Let not faithless fears o'take us,
Let not faith and hope forsake us;
For, through many a foe,
To our home we go.

3 When we seek relief
From a long-felt grief;
When temptations come alluring,
Make us patient and enduring;
Show us that bright shore,
Where we weep no more.

4 Jesus, still lead on,
Till our rest be won;
Heavenly Leader, still direct us,
Still support, console, protect us,
Till we safely stand
In our Fatherland.

We sweetly then pursue

Set free from present sorrow,
We cheerfully can say,
Let the unknown to-morrow
Bring with it what it may.

But he will bear us through;

3 The Father hears him pray,—
His dear anointed One;
He can not turn away
The presence of his Son:
His Spirit answers to the blood,
And tells me I am born of God.

4 My God is reconciled;
His pardoning voice I hear;
He owns me for his child;
I can no longer fear:
With confidence I now draw nigh,
And, "Father, Abba, Father," cry.

1. Hark, my soul, it is the Lord; 'Tis the Sav-iour; hear his word:

WILLIAM COWPER. 1779.

1 Hark, my soul, it is the Lord;
'Tis the Saviour; hear his word:
Jesus speaks, and speaks to thee:
"Say, poor sinner, lov'st thou me?"

2 "I delivered thee when bound,
And, when wounded, healed thy wound;
Sought thee wandering, set thee right,
Turned thy darkness into light.

3 "Mine is an unchanging love,
Higher than the heights above,
Deeper than the depths beneath,
Free and faithful, strong as death."

4 Lord, it is my chief complaint
That my love is weak and faint;
Yet I love thee, and adore;
O for grace to love thee more!

MARY F. MAUDE. 1848.

1 Thine forever! God of love,
Hear us from thy throne above,
Thine forever may we be,
Here and in eternity.

2 Thine forever! O how blest
They who find in thee their rest;
Saviour, Guardian, heavenly Friend,
O defend us to the end.

3 Thine forever! Saviour, keep,
These thy frail and trembling sheep;
Safe alone beneath thy care,
Let us all thy goodness share.

4 Thine forever! thou our Guide
All our wants by thee supplied,
All our sins by thee forgiven,
Lead us, Lord, from earth to heaven.

ELIZABETH PRENTISS. 1870.

- 1 More love to thee, O Christ,
More love to thee!
Hear thou the prayer I make,
On bended knee;
This is my earnest plea,
More love, O Christ, to thee,
More love to thee!
- 2 Once earthly joy I craved.
Sought peace and rest;
Now thee alone I seek,

- Give what is best :
This all my prayer shall be,
More love, O Christ, to thee,
More love to thee !
- 3 Then shall my latest breath
Whisper thy praise ;
This be the parting cry
My heart shall raise,
This still its prayer shall be,
More love, O Christ, to thee,
More love to thee !

Hast bought me with thy blood,

O, wondrous is thy love,
All other loves above,
Love that I daily prove,

- 3 When unto thee I flee,
Thou wilt my refuge be,

What need I now to fear?
What earthly grief or care,
Since thou art ever near?

And long to feast upon thee still;
We drink of thee, the fountain-head,
And thirst our souls from thee to fill.
- 3 Our restless spirits yearn for thee,
Where'er our changeful lot is cast;
Glad when thy gracious smile we see,
Blest when our faith can hold thee fast.
- 4 O Jesus, ever with us stay;
Make all our moments calm and bright;
Chase the dark night of sin away;
Shed o'er the world thy holy light.

Forbid my heart to be afraid;

While I look, and as I cry,
Touch and cleanse me ere I die.

4 Never did I so adore
Jesus Christ, thy Son, before;
Now the time! and this the place!
Gracious Father, show thy grace.

PASS ME NOT. 8s, 5s.

 { While on others thou art smiling, (Omit.) . . . } Do not pass me by. Saviour, Sav-iour, hear my humble cry;
 D. C. While on others thou art calling, (Omit.) . . . Do not pass me by.

F. J. VAN ALSTYNE. 1869.

1 Pass me not, O gentle Saviour,
Hear my humble cry;
While on others thou art smiling,
Do not pass me by.

REF.—Saviour, Saviour,
Hear my humble cry;
While on others thou art calling,
Do not pass me by.

2 Let me at thy throne of mercy
Find a sweet relief;

Kneeling there in deep contrition,
Help my unbelief.

3 Trusting only in thy merit,
Would I seek thy face;
Heal my wounded, broken spirit;
Save me by thy grace.

4 Thou the spring of all my comfort,
More than life to me,
Whom have I on earth beside thee?
Whom in heaven but thee?

EVENTIDE. 108.

W. H. MONK. 1861.

1. Abide with me! Fast falls the e-ven - tide; The darkness deepens—Lord, with me abide!

When oth-er help-ers fail, and comforts flee, Help of the helpless, O a - bid- with me!

H. F. LYTE. 1847.

- 1 Abide with me! Fast falls the eventide;
The darkness deepens—Lord, with me abide!
When other helpers fail, and comforts flee,
Help of the helpless, O abide with me!
- 2 Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day;
Earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass away;
Change and decay in all around I see;
O thou, who changest not, abide with me!
- 3 I need thy presence every passing hour,
What but thy grace can foil the tempter's power?
Who, like thyself, my guide and stay can be?
Through cloud and sunshine, O abide with me!
- 4 Hold thou thy cross before my closing eyes;
Shine through the gloom, and point me to the skies;
Heaven's morning breaks, and earth's vain shadows flee!
In life, in death, O Lord, abide with me!

THOMAS HASTINGS. 1832.

1 Gently, Lord, O gently lead us,
Through this gloomy vale of tears;
And, O Lord, in mercy give us
Thy rich grace in all our fears.
O refresh us, O refresh us,
Traveling through this wilderness.

2 When temptation's darts assail us,
When in devious paths we stray,
Let thy goodness never fail us,
Lead us in thy perfect way.
O refresh us, O refresh us,
Traveling through this wilderness.

3 In the hour of pain and anguish,
In the hour when death draws near,
Suffer not our hearts to languish,
Suffer not our souls to fear.
O refresh us, O refresh us,
Traveling through this wilderness.

4 When this mortal life is ended,
Bid us in thine arms to rest,
Till, by angel bands attended,
We awake among the blest.
O refresh us, O refresh us,
Traveling through this wilderness.

Most gracious Lord;
No tender voice like thine
Can peace afford.

REF.—I need thee, O, I need thee;
Every hour I need thee;
O bless me now, my Saviour!

2 I need thee every hour;
Stay thou near by;

When thou art nigh.

3 I need thee every hour;
Teach me thy will;

DRAW ME NEARER. P. M.

REFRAIN.

1. { I am thine, O Lord; I have heard thy voice, And it told thy love to me; }
 { But I long to rise in the arms of faith, (Omit.) . . . } And be closer drawn to thee. Draw me near - er, nearer, nearer, nearer, blessed Lord, To the cross where thou hast died; Draw me nearer, nearer, nearer, blessed Lord, To thy precious bleeding side.

F. J. VAN ALSTYNE. 1875.

1 I am thine, O Lord; I have heard thy voice,
 And it told thy love to me;
 But I long to rise in the arms of faith,
 And be closer drawn to thee.

REF.—Draw me nearer, nearer, blessed Lord,
 To the cross where thou hast died;
 Draw me nearer, nearer, nearer, blessed Lord,
 To thy precious bleeding side.

2 Consecrate me now to thy service, Lord,
 By the power of grace divine;

Let my soul look up with a steadfast hope,
 And my will be lost in thine.

3 O the pure delight of a single hour
 That before thy throne I spend,
 When I kneel in prayer, and with thee, my God,
 I commune as friend with friend.

4 There are depths of love that I can not know
 Till I cross the narrow sea;
 There are heights of joy that I may not reach
 Till I rest in peace with thee.

CHARLES WESLEY. 1746.

1 Love divine, all love excelling,
 Joy of heaven, to earth come down!
 Fix in us thy humble dwelling;
 All thy faithful mercies crown.
 Jesus, thou art all compassion,
 Pure, unbounded love thou art;
 Visit us with thy salvation,
 Enter every trembling heart.

2 Breathe, O breathe thy Holy Spirit
 Into every troubled breast;
 Let us all thy grace inherit;
 Let us find thy promised rest;
 Take away the love of sinning;
 Take our load of guilt away;
 End the work of thy beginning;
 Bring us to eternal day.

1 More like Jesus would I be,
Let my Saviour dwell in me;
Fill my soul with peace and love,
Make me gentle as a dove;
More like Jesus, while I go,
Pilgrim in this world below;

Let my Saviour dwell in me.

2 If he hears the raven's cry,
If his ever-watchful eye
Marks the sparrows when they fall,
Surely he will hear my call.

He will teach me how to live,
All my sinful thoughts forgive;
Pure in heart I still would be,—
Let my Saviour dwell in me.

3 More like Jesus when I pray,
More like Jesus day by day;
May I rest me by his side,
Where the tranquil waters glide,
Born of him, through grace renewed,
By his love my will subdued,
Rich in faith I still would be,—
Let my Saviour dwell in me.

ISAAC WATTS. 1709.

- 1 Come, gracious Lord, descend and dwell,
By faith and love, in every breast;
Then shall we know and taste and feel
The joys that can not be expressed.
- 2 Come, fill our hearts with inward strength,
Make our enlarged souls possess,
And learn the height and breadth and length
Of thine eternal love and grace.
- 3 Now to the God whose power can do
More than our thoughts and wishes know,
Be everlasting honors done,
By all the church, through Christ his Son.

369

CHARLES WESLEY. 1742.

- 1 O that my load of sin were gone!
O that I could at last submit
At Jesus' feet to lay it down,
To lay my soul at Jesus' feet!
- 2 Rest for my soul I long to find;
Saviour of all, if mine thou art,
Give me thy meek and lowly mind,
And stamp thine image on my heart.
- 3 Fain would I learn of thee, my God,
Thy light and easy burden prove;
The cross, all stained with hallowed blood,
The labor of thy dying love.
- 4 I would, but thou must give the power:
My heart from every sin release;
Bring near, bring near the joyful hour,
And fill me with thy perfect peace.

370

ISAAC WATTS. 1719.

- 1 What sinners value I resign;
Lord, 'tis enough that thou art mine;
I shall behold thy blissful face,
And stand complete in righteousness.
- 2 This life's a dream, an empty show;
But that bright world to which I go
Hath joys substantial and sincere;
When shall I wake and find me there?
- 3 O glorious hour! O blest abode!
I shall be near and like my God;
And flesh and sin no more control
The sacred pleasures of the soul.
- 4 My flesh shall slumber in the ground,
Till the last trumpet's joyful sound,
Then burst the chains with sweet surprise,
And in my Saviour's image rise.

371

ANNE STEELE. 1760.

- 1 Jesus demands this heart of mine—
Demands my wish, my joy, my care;
But, ah! how dead to things divine,
How cold, my best affections are!
- 2 'Tis sin, alas! with dreadful power,
Divides my Saviour from my sight;
O for one happy, shining hour
Of sacred freedom, sweet delight!
- 3 O let thy love shine forth and raise
My captive powers from sin and death,
And fill my heart and life with praise,
And tune my last expiring breath.

1. My God, per-mit me not to be A stran-ger to my-self and thee;
A-midst a thousand thoughts I rove, For-get-ful of my high-est love.

372

HAAC WATTS. 1709.

- 1 My God, permit me not to be
A stranger to myself and thee;
Amidst a thousand thoughts I rove,
Forgetful of my highest love.
- 2 Why should my passions mix with earth,
And thus debase my heavenly birth?
Why should I cleave to things below,
And let my God, my Saviour, go?
- 3 Call me away from flesh and sense;
One sovereign word can draw me thence;
I would obey the voice divine,
And all inferior joys resign.
- 4 Be earth, with all her scenes, withdrawn;
Let noise and vanity be gone;
In secret silence of the mind
My heaven, and there my God, I find.

PAUL GERHARDT. 1653.
Tr. by JOHN WESLEY. 1739.

- 1 Jesus, thy boundless love to me
No thought can reach, no tongue declare;
Unite my thankful heart to thee,
And reign without a rival there.
- 2 Thy love, how cheering is its ray!
All pain before its presence flies;
Care, anguish, sorrow, melt away,
Where'er its healing beams arise.
- 3 O let thy love my soul inflame,
And to thy service sweetly bind;
Transfuse it through my inmost frame,
And mold me wholly to thy mind.
- 4 Thy love, in sufferings, be my peace;
Thy love, in weakness, make me strong;
And, when the storms of life shall cease,
Thy love shall be in heaven my song.

374

ANNE STEELE. 1760.

1 Father, whate'er of earthly bliss
Thy sovereign will denies,
Accepted at thy throne of grace,
Let this petition rise:—

2 Give me a calm, a thankful heart,
From every murmur free;
The blessings of thy grace impart,
And make me live to thee.

3 Let the sweet hope that thou art mine
My life and death attend;
Thy presence through my journey shine,
And crown my journey's end.

375

WILLIAM COWPER. 1779.

1 O for a closer walk with God,
A calm and heavenly frame,
A light to shine upon the road
That leads me to the Lamb!

2 Where is the blessedness I knew
When first I saw the Lord?
Where is the soul-refreshing view
Of Jesus and his word?

3 What peaceful hours I then enjoyed!
How sweet their memory still!
But they have left an aching void
The world can never fill.

4 Return, O Holy Dove, return,
Sweet messenger of rest;
I hate the sins that made thee mourn,
And drove thee from my breast.

5 The dearest idol I have known,
Whate'er that idol be,
Help me to tear it from thy throne,
And worship only thee.

376

BENJAMIN CLEAVELAND. 1792.

1 O could I find from day to day,
A nearness to my God!
Then would my hours glide sweet away,
While leaning on his word.

2 Lord, I desire with thee to live
Anew from day to day,
In joys the world can never give,
Nor ever take away.

3 Blest Jesus, come, and rule my heart,
And make me wholly thine,
That I may never more depart,
Nor grieve thy love divine.

WILLIAM H. BATHURST. 1831.

1 O for a faith that will not shrink,
Though pressed by every foe,
That will not tremble on the brink
Of any earthly woe;—

2 That will not murmur nor complain
Beneath the chastening rod,
But, in the hour of grief or pain,
Will lean upon its God;—

3 A faith that shines more bright and clear
When tempests rage without;
That, when in danger, knows no fear,
In darkness feels no doubt.

4 Lord, give us such a faith as this,
And then, whate'er may come,
We'll taste, e'en here, the hallowed bliss
Of an eternal home.

My thirsty soul doth pine;
O when shall I behold thy face,

His praise again, and find him still
Thy health's eternal spring.

1 Sweet land of rest, for thee I sigh;
When will the moment come,
When I shall lay my armor by,
And dwell with Christ at home?

2 No tranquil joys on earth I know,
No peaceful sheltering dome:
This world's a wilderness of woe,—
This world is not my home.

3 To Jesus Christ I sought for rest;
He bade me cease to roam,
But fly for succor to his breast,
And he'd conduct me home.

Hearts and voices raising
Praises to our King;
All we have we offer;
All we hope to be,
Body, soul, and spirit,
All we yield to thee.

2 Nearer, ever nearer,
Christ, we draw to thee,
Deep in adoration
Bending low the knee :

Thou for our redemption,
Cam'st on earth to die;
Thou, that we might follow,
Hast gone up on high.

3 Great and ever greater
Are thy mercies here,
True and everlasting

Thou Lamb of Calvary,
Saviour divine!
Now hear me while I pray,
Take all my guilt away;
O let me from this day
Be wholly thine.

2 May thy rich grace impart
Strength to my fainting heart.
My zeal inspire;
As thou hast died for me,
O may my love to thee
Pure, warm, and changeless be
A living fire.

3 While life's dark maze I tread,
And griefs around me spread,
Be thou my guide;
Bid darkness turn to day,
Wipe sorrow's tears away,
Nor let me ever stray
From thee aside.

4 When ends life's transient dream,
When death's cold, sullen stream

O guide me through the desert here,
And bring me home at last.

- 2 Give me on thee to wait,
Till I can all things do;
On thee—almighty to create,
Almighty to renew.
- 3 I want a sober mind,
A self-renouncing will,

The baits of pleasing ill;

To hardship, grief, and loss;
Bold to take up, firm to sustain,

 Thy better portion trace ;
 Rise from transitory things
 T'ward heaven, thy native place :
 Sun and moon and stars decay ;
 Time shall soon this earth remove ;
 Rise, my soul, and haste away
 To seats prepared above.
- 2 Rivers to the ocean run,
 Nor stay in all their course ;
 Fire, ascending, seeks the sun ;
 Both speed them to their source :

- So a soul that's born of God
 Pants to view his glorious face,
 Upward tends to his abode,
 To rest in his embrace.
- 3 Cease, ye pilgrims, cease to mourn ;
 Press onward to the prize ;
 Soon our Saviour will return,
 Triumphant in the skies ;
 Yet a season, and you know
 Happy entrance will be given,
 All our sorrows left below,
 And earth exchanged for heaven.

389

JOSEPH SWAIN. 1761-1796.

- 1 O thou in whose presence my soul takes delight,
 On whom in affliction I call,
 My comfort by day and my song in the night,
 My hope, my salvation, my all !

- 2 Where dost thou at noontide resort with thy sheep
 To feed on the pastures of love ?
 Say, why in the valley of death should I weep,
 Or alone in the wilderness rove ?
- 3 O why should I wander an alien from thee,
 Or cry in the desert for bread ?
 Thy foes will rejoice when my sorrows they see,
 And smile at the tears I have shed.
- 4 Restore, my dear Saviour, the light of thy face,
 Thy soul-cheering comfort impart,
 And let the sweet tokens of pardoning grace
 Bring joy to my desolate heart.

JOHN NEWTON. 1779.

1 How tedious and tasteless the hours
When Jesus no longer I see!
Sweet prospects, sweet birds, and sweet flowers,
Have all lost their sweetness with me.
The midsummer sun shines but dim;
The fields strive in vain to look gay;
But when I am happy in him,
December's as pleasant as May.

2 His name yields the richest perfume,
And sweeter than music his voice;
His presence disperses my gloom,
And makes all within me rejoice:
I should, were he always thus nigh,
Have nothing to wish or to fear;
No mortal so happy as I;
My summer would last all the year.

3 Content with beholding his face,
My all to his pleasure resigned,
No changes of season or place
Would make any change in my mind.
While blest with a sense of his love,
A palace a toy would appear;
And prisons would palaces prove,
If Jesus would dwell with me there.

4 Dear Lord, if indeed I am thine,
If thou art my sun and my song,
Say, why do I languish and pine?
And why are my winters so long?
O drive these dark clouds from my sky;
Thy soul-cheering presence restore;
Or take me unto thee on high,
Where winter and clouds are no more.

The falling of a tear,

Prayer, the sublimest strains that reach

1 From every stormy wind that blows,
From every swelling tide of woes,
There is a calm, a sure retreat—
'Tis found beneath the mercy-seat.

2 There is a place where Jesus sheds
The oil of gladness on our heads,—
A place of all on earth most sweet;
It is the blood-bought mercy-seat.

3 There is a scene where spirits blend,
Where friend holds fellowship with friend;
Though sundered far, by faith they meet
Around one common mercy-seat.

4 There, there on eagle wings we soar,
And sin and sense molest no more,
And heaven comes down our souls to greet,
And glory crowns the mercy-seat.

398

WILLIAM COWPER. 1779.

1 What various hindrances we meet
In coming to a mercy seat;
Yet who that knows the worth of prayer
But wishes to be often there?

2 Prayer makes the darkened clouds withdraw;
Prayer climbs the ladder Jacob saw;
Gives exercise to faith and love;
Brings every blessing from above.

3 Restraining prayer, we cease to fight;
Prayer makes the Christian's armor bright;
And Satan trembles when he sees
The weakest saint upon his knees.

4 Were half the breath oft vainly spent,
To heaven in supplication sent,
Our cheerful song would oftener be,
"Hear what the Lord has done for me."

Then let us wait till he appear,

Yes, though he may awhile forbear,

3 There is no secret sigh we breathe
But meets thine ear divine;
And every cross grows light beneath

That love which wept with woe.

He follows in his train.
- 2 The martyr first, whose eagle eye
Could pierce beyond the grave,
Who saw his Master in the sky,
And called on him to save:

Like him, with pardon on his tongue,
In midst of mortal pain,
He prayed for them that did the wrong:
Who follows in his train?

3 A noble army, men and boys,
The matron and the maid,
Around the Saviour's throne rejoice,
In robes of light arrayed:
They climbed the steep ascent of heaven
Through peril, toil, and pain:
O God, to us may grace be given
To follow in their train!

- 1 Jesus, let thy pitying eye
Call back a wandering sheep;
False to thee, like Peter, I
Would fain like Peter weep.
Let me be by grace restored;
On me be all long-suffering shown;
Turn and look upon me, Lord,
And break my heart of stone.
- 2 Saviour, Prince! enthroned above,
Repentance to impart,
Give me, through thy dying love,
The humble, contrite heart;

Give what I have long implored,
A portion of thy grief unknown;
Turn and look upon me, Lord,
And break my heart of stone.

3 See me, Saviour! from above,
Nor suffer me to die;
Life and happiness and love
Drop from thy gracious eye;
Speak the reconciling word,
And let thy mercy melt me down;
Turn and look upon me, Lord,
And break my heart of stone.

- 1 Awake, my soul; stretch every nerve,
And press with vigor on;
A heavenly race demands thy zeal,
And an immortal crown.
- 2 A cloud of witnesses around
Hold thee in full survey;
Forget the steps already trod,
And onward urge thy way.
- 3 'Tis God's all animating voice
That calls thee from on high;
'Tis his own hand presents the prize
To thine uplifted eye;—
- 4 That prize, with peerless glories bright,
Which shall new luster boast,
When victors' wreaths and monarchs' gems
Shall blend in common dust.

 Who trusts in God's unchanging love,

2 What can these anxious cares avail
 thee,
 The never-ceasing moans and sighs?
 What can it help, if thou bewail thee,
 O'er each dark moment as it flies?
 Our cross and trials do but press
 The heavier for our bitterness.

3 Only be still and wait his leisure
 In cheerful hope, with heart content
 To take whate'er thy Father's pleasure
 And all-discerning love hath sent;
 No doubt our inmost wants are known
 To him who chose us for his own.

4 Sing, pray, and keep his ways unswerving,
 So do thine own part faithfully,
 And trust his word, though undeserving,
 Thou yet shall find it true for thee;
 God never yet forsook at need
 The soul that trusted him indeed.

Down to the gulf of dark despair;
And while I listened to your song,
Your streams had e'en conveyed me there.
- 3 Lord, I adore thy matchless grace,
That warned me of that dark abyss,
That drew me from those treacherous seas,
And bade me seek superior bliss.
- 4 Now to the shining realms above
I stretch my hands and glance my eyes;
O for the pinions of a dove,
To bear me to the upper skies!

- 1 So let our lips and lives express
The holy gospel we profess;
So let our works and virtues shine,
To prove the doctrine all divine.
- 2 Thus shall we best proclaim abroad
The honors of our Saviour God,
When his salvation reigns within,
And grace subdues the power of sin.
- 3 Religion bears our spirits up,
While we expect that blessed hope,—
The bright appearance of the Lord,
And faith stands leaning on his word.

442

ISAAC WATTS. 1707.

- 1 When I survey the wondrous cross
On which the Prince of glory died,
My richest gain I count but loss,
And pour contempt on all my pride.
- 2 Forbid it, Lord, that I should boast,
Save in the death of Christ, my God;
All the vain things that charm me most,
I sacrifice them to his blood.
- 3 See, from his head, his hands, his feet,
Sorrow and love flow mingled down;
Did e'er such love and sorrow meet,
Or thorns compose so rich a crown?
- 4 Were all the realm of nature mine,
That were a present far too small;
Love so amazing, so divine,
Demands my soul, my life, my all.

SAMUEL DAVIES. 1760.

- 1 Lord, I am thine, entirely thine,
Purchased and saved by blood divine;
With full consent thine would I be,
And own thy sovereign right in me.

A wretched sinner, lost to God,
But ransomed by Immanuel's blood.

The Friend who all thy sorrows bore;
Let every idol be forgot;
But, O my soul, forget him not.
- 2 Renounce thy works and ways with grief,
And fly to this divine relief;
Nor him forget, who left his throne,
And for thy life gave up his own.
- 3 Eternal truth and mercy shine
In him, and he himself is thine;
And canst thou, then, with sin beset,
Such charms, such matchless charms, forget?
- 4 O no; till life itself depart,
His name shall cheer and warm my heart;
And, lisping this, from earth I'll rise,
And join the chorus of the skies.

No; when I blush, be this my shame,

- 3 Ashamed of Jesus!—yes, I may,
When I've no guilt to wash away;
No tears to wipe, no good to crave,
No fears to quell, no soul to save.

Nor from his cause will we depart,

1 How sweet, how heavenly is the sight,
When those who love the Lord

1 Sow in the morn thy seed;
At eve hold not thy hand;
To doubt and fear give thou no heed;
Broadcast it o'er the land.

2 Thou canst not toil in vain;
Cold, heat, and moist and dry
Shall foster and mature the grain
For garners in the sky.

3 Thence, when the glorious end,
The day of God, shall come,
The angel reapers shall descend,
And heaven cry, "Harvest Home!"

1 Laborers of Christ, arise,
And gird you for the toil;
The dew of promise from the skies
Already cheers the soil.

2 Go where the sick recline,
Where mourning hearts deplore;
And, where the sons of sorrow pine,
Dispense your hallowed lore.

3 Urge, with a tender zeal,
The erring child along,
Where peaceful congregations kneel,
And pious teachers throng.

I LOVE TO TELL THE STORY. 7s, 6s. D.

W. G. FISCHER.

i. I love to tell the sto - ry Of unseen things above, Of Je - sus and his glo-ry,

Of Je - sus and his love. I love to tell the sto-ry, Be-cause I know 'tis true;

REFRAIN.
It sat - is-fies my longings As nothing else can do. I love to tell the sto-ry,

'Twill be my theme in glory, To tell the old, old sto-ry Of Je-sus and his love.

471

CATHERINE HANKEY. 1865.

1 I love to tell the story
Of unseen things above,
Of Jesus and his glory,
Of Jesus and his love.
I love to tell the story,
Because I know 'tis true;
It satisfies my longings
As nothing else can do.

REF.—I love to tell the story;
'Twill be my theme in glory,
To tell the old, old story
Of Jesus and his love.

2 I love to tell the story :
'Tis pleasant to repeat,

What seems, each time I tell it,
More wonderfully sweet.
I love to tell the story :
For some have never heard
The message of salvation
From God's own holy word.

3 I love to tell the story ;
For those who know it best
Seem hungering and thirsting
To hear it like the rest.
And when, in scenes of glory,
I sing the new, new song,
'Twill be—the old, old story
That I have loved so long!

1. One more day's work for Je - sus, One less of life for me! But heaven is nearer,

472

ANNA WARNER. 1874.

1 One more day's work for Jesus,
One less of life for me!
But heaven is nearer,
And Christ is dearer
Than yesterday to me;
His love and light
Fill all my soul to-night.

REF.—One more day's work for Jesus,
One more day's work for Jesus,
One more day's work for Jesus,
One less of life for me.

2 One more day's work for Jesus!
How glorious is my King!
'Tis joy, not duty,
To speak his beauty;
My soul mounts on the wing

At the mere thought,
How Christ my life has bought.

3 One more day's work for Jesus!
How sweet the work has been,
To tell the story,
To show the glory,
Where Christ's flock enter in!
How it did shine
In this poor heart of mine!

4 O blessed work for Jesus!
O rest at Jesus' feet!
There toil seems pleasure,
My wants are treasure,
And pain for him is sweet;
Lord, if I may,
I'll serve another day!

F. J. VAN ALSTYNE.. 1875.

1 Rescue the perishing,
 Care for the dying,
 Snatch them in pity from sin and the grave;
 Weep o'er the erring one,
 Lift up the fallen,
 Tell them of Jesus, the mighty to save.

REF.—Rescue the perishing,
 Care for the dying;
 Jesus is merciful,
 Jesus will save.

2 Though they are slighting him,
 Still he is waiting,
 Waiting the penitent child to receive;
 Plead with them earnestly,

Plead with them gently,
 He will forgive if they only believe.

3 Down in the human heart,
 Crushed by the tempter,
 Feelings lie buried that grace can restore;
 Touched by a loving heart,
 Wakened by kindness,
 Chords that were broken will vibrate once more.

4 Rescue the perishing,
 Duty demands it;
 Strength for thy labor the Lord will provide;
 Back to the narrow way
 Patiently win them;
 Tell the poor wand'rer a Saviour has died.

1. He that goeth forth with weeping, Bearing precious seed in love, Never tiring, never sleeping, Findeth mercy from a-bove.

474

THOMAS HASTINGS. 1836.

1 He that goeth forth with weeping,
 Bearing precious seed in love,
 Never tiring, never sleeping,
 Findeth mercy from above.

2 Soft descend the dews of heaven,
 Bright the rays celestial shine;
 Precious fruits will thus be given
 Through an influence all divine.

3 Sow thy seed, be never weary,
 Let no fears thy soul annoy;
 Be the prospect ne'er so dreary,
 Thou shalt reap the fruit of joy.

4 Lo! the scene of verdure brightening,
 See the rising grain appear;
 Look again! the fields are whitening,
 For the harvest-time is near.

NOTHING BUT LEAVES. P. M.

S. J. VAIL.

1. Noth-ing but leaves! the spir-it grieves O - ver a wast-ed life; O'er sins indulged while conscience slept,
O'er vows and promis-es unkept, And reaps from years of strife— Nothing but leaves, Nothing but leaves.

475

MRS. LUCY E. AKERMAN.

1 Nothing but leaves! the spirit grieves
Over a wasted life;
O'er sins indulged while conscience slept,
O'er vows and promises unkept,
And reaps from years of strife—
Nothing but leaves.

2 Nothing but leaves! no gathered sheaves
Of life's fair ripening grain;
We sow our seeds, lo! tares and weeds,
Words, idle words, for earnest deeds,
We reap with toil and pain—
Nothing but leaves.

3 Nothing but leaves! sad memory weaves
No veil to hide the past;
And as we trace our weary way,
Counting each lost and misspent day,
Sadly we find at last—
Nothing but leaves.

4 Ah! who shall thus the Master meet,
Bearing but withered leaves?
Ah! who shall at the Saviour's feet,
Before the awful judgment-seat,
Lay down, for golden sheaves,
Nothing but leaves?

WORK FOR THE NIGHT. P. M.

476

ANNIE L. WALKER. 1865.

1 Work, for the night is coming,
Work through the morning hours;
Work while the dew is sparkling,
Work 'mid springing flowers:
Work when the day grows brighter,
Work in the glowing sun;
Work, for the night is coming,
When man's work is done.

2 Work, for the night is coming,
Work in the sunny noon;
Fill brightest hours with labor,
Rest comes sure and soon.

Give every flying minute
Something to keep in store:
Work, for the night is coming,
When man works no more.

3 Work, for the night is coming,
Under the sunset skies;
While their bright tints are glowing,
Work, for daylight flies.
Work till the last beam fadeth,
Fadeth to shine no more;
Work while the night is darkening,
When man's work is o'er.

ANNE STEELE. 1760.

- 1 When sins and fears, prevailing, rise,
And fainting hope almost expires,
To thee, O Lord, I lift my eyes;
To thee I breathe my soul's desires.
- 2 Art thou not mine, my living Lord?
And can my hope, my comfort, die?
'Tis fixed on thine almighty word,
That word which built the earth and sky.
- 3 If my immortal Saviour lives,
Then my immortal life is sure;
His word a firm foundation gives;
Here I may build and rest secure.
- 4 Here, O my soul, thy trust repose;
If Jesus is forever mine,
Not death itself, that last of foes,
Shall break a union so divine.

CHARLES WESLEY. 1740.

- 1 Whither, O whither should I fly,
But to my loving Saviour's breast,
Secure within thine arms to lie,
And safe beneath thy wings to rest?
- 2 I have no skill the snare to shun,
But thou, O Christ, my wisdom art;
I ever into ruin run,
But thou art greater than my heart.
- 3 I have no might t'oppose the foe,
But everlasting strength is thine;
Show me the way that I should go,
Show me the path I should decline.

Lead me a way I have not known;

My refuge, my almighty Friend,
And can my soul from thee depart,
On whom alone my hopes depend?
- 2 Whither, ah, whither shall I go,
A wretched wanderer from my Lord?
Can this dark world of sin and woe
One glimpse of happiness afford?
- 3 Eternal life thy words impart;
On these my fainting spirit lives;
Here sweeter comforts cheer my heart
Than all the round of nature gives.
- 4 Let earth's alluring joys combine;
While thou art near, in vain they call;
One smile, one blissful smile, of thine,
My gracious Lord, outweighs them all.

We walk through deserts dark as night;
Till we arrive at heaven, our home,
Faith is our guide, and faith our light.

She makes the pearly gates appear;
Far into distant worlds she pries,
And brings eternal glories near.

Though lions roar and tempests blow,
And rocks and dangers fill the way.

My beauty is, my glorious dress:
Mid flaming worlds, in this arrayed,
With joy shall I lift up my head.
- 2 When from the dust of death I rise
To claim my mansion in the skies,
E'en then shall this be all my plea,—
"Jesus hath lived and died for me."
- 3 This spotless robe the same appears
When ruined nature sinks in years;
No age can change its glorious hue;
The robe of Christ is ever new.
- 4 O let the dead now hear thy voice;
Now bid thy banished ones rejoice;
Their beauty this, their glorious dress,
Jesus, the Lord, our Righteousness.

482

ISAAC WATTS. 1707.

- 1 Let me but hear my Saviour say,
"Strength shall be equal to thy day,"
Then I rejoice in deep distress,
Upheld by all-sufficient grace.
- 2 I can do all things, or can bear
All sufferings, if my Lord be there;
Sweet pleasures mingle with the pains,
While he my sinking head sustains.
- 3 I glory in infirmity,
That Christ's own power may rest on me;
When I am weak then am I strong,
Grace is my shield, and Christ my song.

Behold him rising from the dead!

Forever interceding there;
Who shall divide us from his love,

Naked, come to thee for dress;
Helpless, look to thee for grace;
Vile, I to the fountain fly,
Wash me, Saviour, or I die.

4 While I draw this fleeting breath,
When mine eyelids close in death,
When I rise to worlds unknown,
See thee on thy judgment throne,—
Rock of ages, cleft for me,
Let me hide myself in thee.

1 Hallelujah! who shall part
Christ's own church from Christ's own heart?
Sever from the Saviour's side
Souls for whom the Saviour died?
Dash one precious jewel down
From Immanuel's blood-bought crown?

2 Hallelujah! shall the sword
Part us from our glorious Lord?
Trouble dark or dire disgrace

E'er the Spirit's seal efface?
Famine, nakedness, or hate,
Bride and Bridegroom separate?

3 Hallelujah! life nor death,
Powers above, nor powers beneath,
Monarch's might, nor tyrant's doom,
Things that are nor things to come,
Men nor angels, e'er shall part
Christ's own church from Christ's own heart.

1 Always with us, always with us;—
Words of cheer and words of love;
Thus the risen Saviour whispers,
From his dwelling-place above.

2 With us when we toil in sadness,
Sowing much and reaping none;
Telling us that in the future
Golden harvests shall be won.

3 With us when the storm is sweeping
O'er our pathway dark and drear;
Waking hope within our bosoms,
Stilling every anxious fear.

4 With us in the lonely valley,
When we cross the chilling stream;
Lighting up the steps to glory
With salvation's radiant beam.

1 Jesus, lover of my soul,
Let me to thy bosom fly,
While the nearer waters roll,
While the tempest still is high;
Hide me, O my Saviour, hide,
Till the storm of life is past;
Safe into the haven guide,
O receive my soul at last.

2 Other refuge have I none;
Hangs my helpless soul on thee;
Leave, ah! leave me not alone,
Still support and comfort me!
All my trust on thee is stayed,
All my help from thee I bring;
Cover my defenseless head
With the shadow of thy wing.

3 Thou, O Christ, art all I want;
More than all in thee I find;
Raise the fallen, cheer the faint,
Heal the sick, and lead the blind.
Just and holy is thy Name;
I am all unrighteousness;
Vile and full of sin I am,
Thou art full of truth and grace.

4 Plenteous grace with thee is found,
Grace to cover all my sin;
Let the healing streams abound,
Make and keep me pure within.
Thou of Life the Fountain art;
Freely let me take of thee;
Spring thou up within my heart,
Rise to all eternity.

1 How firm a foundation, ye saints of the Lord,
Is laid for your faith in his excellent word;
What more can he say than to you he hath said,—
To you who for refuge to Jesus have fled?
2 "Fear not, I am with thee; O be not dismayed!
I, I am thy God, and will still give thee aid;
I'll strengthen thee, help thee, and cause thee to stand,
Upheld by my righteous, omnipotent hand.

3 "When through the deep waters I call thee to go,
The rivers of sorrow shall not overflow;
For I will be with thee, thy troubles to bless,
And sanctify to thee thy deepest distress.
4 "The soul that on Jesus hath leaned for repose
I will not, I will not desert to his foes;
That soul, though all hell should endeavor to shake,
I'll never, no never, no never forsake."

All the curse, hath passed away.
3 There the Lamb, our Shepherd, leads us
By the streams of life along;
On the freshest pastures feeds us,
Turns our sighing into song.

Nevermore are sad and weary,
Never, never sin again.

The church our blest Redeemer saved
With his own precious blood.

2 I love thy church, O God;

Dear as the apple of thine eye,
And graven on thy hand.

THOMAS KELLY. 1800.

- 1 Zion stands with hills surrounded,—
 Zion, kept by power divine;
 All her foes shall be confounded,
 Though the world in arms combine:
 Happy Zion,
 What a favored lot is thine!
- 2 Every human tie may perish;
 Friend to friend unfaithful prove;
 Mothers cease their own to cherish;

Heaven and earth at last remove;
 But no changes
 Can attend Jehovah's love.

- 3 In the furnace God may prove thee,
 Thence to bring thee forth more bright,
 But can never cease to love thee:
 Thou art precious in his sight:
 God is with thee,—
 God, thine everlasting light.

 For her my prayers ascend;
 To her my cares and toils be given,

- 4 Beyond my highest joy
 I prize her heavenly ways,

Her sweet communion, solemn vows,
 Her hymns of love and praise.

 To Zion shall be given
 The brightest glories earth can yield,
 And brighter bliss of heaven.

ADONIRAM JUDSON. 1788-1850.

1 Come, Holy Spirit, Dove divine,
On these baptismal waters shine,
And teach our hearts, in highest strain,
To praise the Lamb, for sinners slain.

2 We love thy name, we love thy laws,
And joyfully embrace thy cause;
We love thy cross, the shame, the pain,
O Lamb of God, for sinners slain.

3 We sink beneath thy mystic flood;
O bathe us in thy cleansing blood;
We die to sin, and seek a grave,
With thee, beneath the yielding wave.

4 And as we rise, with thee to live,
O let the Holy Spirit give
The sealing unction from above,
The breath of life, the fire of love.

523

S. P. SMITH. 1850.

1 How blest the hour when first we gave
Our guilty souls to thee, O God!
A cheerful sacrifice of love,
Bought with the Saviour's precious blood.

2 How blest the vow we here record!
How blest the grace we now receive!
Buried in baptism with our Lord,
New lives of holiness to live.

3 How blest the solemn rite that seals
Our death to sin, our guilt forgiven!
How blest the emblem that reveals
God reconciled, and peace with heaven!

4 Thus through the emblematic grave
The glorious, suffering Saviour trod;
Thou art our pattern, through the wave
We follow thee, blest Son of God.

524

THOMAS BALDWIN. 1819.

1 Come, happy souls, adore the Lamb,
Who loved our race ere time began,
Who veiled his Godhead in our clay,
And in a humble manger lay.

2 To Jordan's stream the Spirit led,
To mark the path his saints should tread;
With joy they trace the sacred way,
To see the place where Jesus lay.

3 Immersed by John in Jordan's wave,
The Saviour left his watery grave;
Heaven owned the deed, approved the way,
And blessed the place where Jesus lay.

4 Come, all who love his precious name;
Come, tread his steps, and learn of him.
Happy beyond expression they
Who find the place where Jesus lay.

And, 'whelmed in our sorrow, didst sink to the dead,

Then wake in thy likeness to walk in the way

To keep, by thy Spirit, our spirits from sin ;

JOHN RYLAND. 1773.

- 1 In all my Lord's appointed ways
My journey I'll pursue;
“Hinder me not,” ye much-loved saints,
For I must go with you.
- 2 Through floods and flames, if Jesus lead,
I'll follow where he goes;
“Hinder me not,” shall be my cry,
Though earth and hell oppose.
- 3 Through duties, and through trials too,
I'll go at his command;
“Hinder me not,” for I am bound
To my Immanuel's land.
- 4 And when my Saviour calls me home,
Still this my cry shall be—
“Hinder me not;” come, welcome, death;
I'll gladly go with thee.

Thus came the emblematic Dove,
And hovered o'er the Son.
- 3 So, blessed Spirit, come to-day
To our baptismal scene;
Let thoughts of earth be far away,
And every mind serene.

1 Thou hast said, exalted Jesus,
Take thy cross and follow me;
Shall the word with terror seize us?
Shall we from the burden flee?

Lord, I'll take it,
And, rejoicing, follow thee.

2 While this liquid tomb surveying,
Emblem of my Saviour's grave,
Shall I shun its brink, betraying
Feelings worthy of a slave?

No; I'll enter:
Jesus entered Jordan's wave.

3 Blest the sign which thus reminds me,
Saviour, of thy love for me;
But more blest the love that binds me

In its deathless bonds to thee:

O what pleasure,
Buried with my Lord to be!

4 Should it rend some fond connection,
Should I suffer shame or loss,
Yet the fragrant, blest reflection,
I have been where Jesus was,
Will revive me
When I faint beneath the cross.

5 Fellowship with him possessing,
Let me die to earth and sin;
Let me rise t' enjoy the blessing
Which the faithful soul shall win:
May I ever
Follow where my Lord has been.

With hearts all full of praises,
To keep thy blest command:
By faith our souls rejoicing,
To trace thy path of love,
Through death's dark angry billows,
Up to the throne above.
- 2 Lord Jesus, we remember
The travail of thy soul,
When, in thy love's deep pity,
The waves did o'er thee roll:
Baptized in death's cold waters,
For us thy blood was shed;
For us the Lord of glory
Was numbered with the dead.

- 3 Lord, now thou art arisen,
Thy travail is all o'er,
For sin thou once hast suffered,
Thou livest to die no more;
Sin, death, and hell are vanquished,
By thee, thy church's Head;
And lo! we share thy triumphs,
Thou first-born from the dead.
- 4 Into thy death baptized,
We own with thee we died;
With thee, our life, are risen,
And in thee glorified;
From sin, the world, and Satan,
We're ransomed by thy blood,
And now would walk as strangers
Alive with thee to God.

1 Bread of the world in mercy broken,
Wine of the soul in mercy shed,

2 Look on the heart by sorrow broken,
Look on the tears by sinners shed,

That by thy grace our souls are fed.

FRANCES R. HAVERGAL. 1836-1879.

1 Sit down beneath his shadow,
And rest with great delight;
The faith that now beholds him
Is pledge of future sight.

2 Our Master's love remember,
Exceeding great and free;
Lift up thy heart in gladness,
For he remembers thee.

3 A little while though parted,
Remember, wait, and love,
Until he comes in glory,
Until we meet above.

4 Till in the Father's kingdom
The heavenly feast is spread,
And we behold his beauty,
Whose blood for us was shed.

2 Thou, who art beyond the farthest
Mental eye can scan,
Can it be that thou regardest
Songs of sinful man?
Can we feel that thou art near us,
And wilt hear us? Yea, we can.

3 Here, great God, to-day we offer
Of thine own to thee;
And for thine acceptance proffer,
All unworthily,
Hearts and minds and hands and voices,
In our choicest melody.

AT THE FEET OF JESUS. P. M.

PHILIP P. BLISS. 1838-1877.

1 At the feet of Jesus, Listening to his word,
Learning wisdom's lesson From her loving Lord,
Mary, led by heavenly grace,
Chose the meek disciple's place.

At the feet of Jesus is the place for me,
There a humble learner would I choose to be.

2 At the feet of Jesus, Pouring perfume rare,
Mary did her Saviour For the grave prepare;
And from love the good work done,

She her Lord's approval won.
At the feet of Jesus is the place for me,
There in sweetest service would I ever be.

3 At the feet of Jesus In that morning hour,
Loving hearts receiving Resurrection power,
Haste with joy to preach the word,
"Christ is risen, praise the Lord!"

At the feet of Jesus, risen now for me,
I shall sing his praises through eternity.

- 1 When, his salvation bringing,
To Zion Jesus came,
The children all stood singing,
Hosannas to his name:
Nor did their zeal offend him,
But, as he rode along,
He let them still attend him,
And smiled to hear their song.
- 2 And since the Lord retaineth
His love for children still,
Though now as King he reigneth
On Zion's heavenly hill,
We'll flock around his banner,
Who sits upon his throne,
And cry aloud, "Hosanna
To David's royal Son."
- 3 For should we fail proclaiming
Our great Redeemer's praise,
The stones our silence shaming,
Would their hosannas raise.
But shall we only render
The tribute of our words?
No; while our hearts are tender,
They too shall be the Lord's.

HARRIET PHILLIPS.

- 1 We bring no glittering treasures,
No gems from earth's deep mine:
We come with simple measures,
To chant thy love divine.
Children, thy favors sharing,
Their voice of thanks would raise;
Father, accept our offering,
Our song of grateful praise.
- 2 The dearest gift of Heaven,
Love's written word of truth,
To us is early given,
To guide our steps in youth;
We hear the wondrous story,
The tale of Calvary;
We read of homes in glory,
From sin and sorrow free.
- 3 Redeemer, grant thy blessing!
O teach us how to pray,
That each, thy fear possessing,
May tread life's onward way;
Then, where the pure are dwelling,
We hope to meet again,
And, sweeter numbers swelling,
Forever praise thy name.

Let thy tenderness, so loving,

1 I think, when I read that sweet story of old,
When Jesus was here among men,
How he called little children as lambs to

I should like to have been with them then.

2 I wish that his hands had been placed on my head,
That his arms had been thrown around me,

And that I might have seen his kind look
when he said,
"Let the little ones come unto me."

3 Yet still to his footstool in prayer I may go,
And ask for a share in his love;
And if I thus earnestly seek him below,
I shall see him and hear him above.

Bound in chains, shall hurt no more.

2 Then shall wars and tumults cease,
Then be banished grief and pain;
Righteousness and joy and peace,
Undisturbed shall ever reign.
Bless we then our gracious Lord;
Ever praise his glorious name;
All his mighty acts record,
All his wondrous love proclaim.

1. From Greenland's icy mountains, From In-dia's co-ral strand, Where Afric's sun-ny fount-ains Roll down their golden sand;

REGINALD HEBER. 1819.

1 From Greenland's icy mountains,
From India's coral strand,
Where Afric's sunny fountains
Roll down their golden sand;
From many an ancient river,
From many a palmy plain,
They call us to deliver
Their land from error's chain.
2 What though the spicy breezes
Blow soft o'er Ceylon's isle;
Though every prospect pleases,
And only man is vile?
In vain, with lavish kindness,
The gifts of God are strown;
The heathen, in his blindness,
Bows down to wood and stone.

3 Can we, whose souls are lighted
By wisdom from on high,
Can we to men benighted
The lamp of life deny?
Salvation! O salvation!
The joyful sound proclaim,
Till earth's remotest nation
Has learned Messiah's name.
4 Waft, waft, ye winds, his story
And you, ye waters, roll,
Till, like a sea of glory,
It spreads from pole to pole:
Till o'er our ransomed nature
The Lamb, for sinners slain,
Redeemer, King, Creator,
In bliss returns to reign.

In many a gentle shower,
And brighter scenes before us
Are opening every hour:
Each cry, to heaven going,
Abundant answers bring, —
And heavenly gales are blowing,
With peace upon their wings.

3 See heathen nations bending
Before the God we love,
And thousand hearts ascending
In gratitude above;

The gospel call obey,
And seek the Saviour's blessing, —

All thy scenes, I love them well;

Can I bid you all farewell?
Can I leave thee,
Far in heathen lands to dwell?
- 2 Home, thy joys are passing lovely,—
Joys no stranger heart can tell;
Happy home, indeed I love thee;
Can I, can I say "Farewell?"
Can I leave thee,
Far in heathen lands to dwell?
- 3 Scenes of sacred peace and pleasure,
Holy days and Sabbath bell,
Richest, brightest, sweetest treasure,

Can I say a last farewell?

Can I leave thee,
Far in heathen lands to dwell?

- 4 Yes, I hasten from you gladly,
From the scenes I loved so well;
Far away, ye billows, bear me;
Lovely, native land, farewell!
Pleased I leave thee,
Far in heathen lands to dwell.

- 2 Has thy night been long and mournful?
Have thy friends unfaithful proved?
Have thy foes been proud and scornful,
By thy sighs and tears unmoved?
Cease thy mourning;
Zion still is well beloved.

- 3 God, thy God, will now restore thee;
He himself appears thy Friend;
All thy foes shall flee before thee;
Here their boasts and triumphs end:
Great deliverance
Zion's King will surely send.

- 4 Enemies no more shall trouble,

1 O thou, whose own vast temple stands,
Built over earth and sea,
Accept the walls that human hands
Have raised to worship thee.

2 Lord, from thine inmost glory send,
Within these courts to bide,
The peace that dwelleth without end,
Serenely by thy side!

3 May erring minds that worship here
Be taught the better way;
And they who mourn and they who fear,

So sinks the gale when storms are o'er;
So gently shuts the eye of day;
So dies a wave along the shore.

A calm which life nor death destroys;
And naught disturbs that peace profound
Which his unfettered soul enjoys.

Light from its load the spirit flies,

And yet we dread to enter there.
- 2 The pains, the groans, and dying strife
Fright our approaching souls away;
Still we shrink back again to life,
Fond of our prison and our clay.
- 3 O if my Lord would come and meet,
My soul should stretch her wings in haste,
Fly fearless through death's iron gate,
Nor feel the terrors as she passed.

1 As flows the rapid river,
With channel broad and free,
Its waters rippling ever,
And hasting to the sea,
So life is onward flowing,
And days of offered peace,
And man is swiftly going
Where calls of mercy cease.

2 As moons are ever waning,
As hastes the sun away,
As storm and winds, complaining,
Bring on the wintry day,

So fast the night comes o'er us,
The darkness of the grave;
And death is just before us;
God takes the life he gave.

3 Say, hath thy heart its treasure
Laid up in worlds above?
And is it all thy pleasure
Thy God to praise and love?
Beware, lest death's dark river
Its billows o'er thee roll,
And thou lament forever
The ruin of thy soul.

1. A few more years shall roll, A few more seasons come, And we shall be with those that rest, A - sleep with-in the tomb.

631

HORATIUS BONAR. 1857.

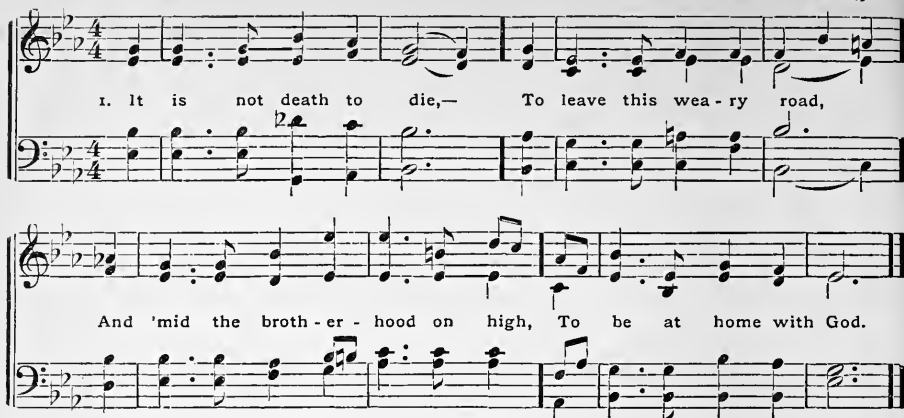

1 A few more years shall roll
A few more seasons come,
And we shall be with those that rest,
Asleep within the tomb.
2 A few more struggles here,
A few more partings o'er,
A few more toils, a few more tears,
And we shall weep no more.

3 A few more Sabbaths here
Shall cheer us on our way,
And we shall reach the endless rest,
Th' eternal Sabbath day.
4 Then, O my Lord, prepare
My soul for that great day;
O wash me in thy precious blood,
And take my sins away.

1. It is not death to die,— To leave this wea-ry road,
And 'mid the broth-er-hood on high, To be at home with God.

632

GEORGE W. BETHUNE 1847.

- 1 It is not death to die,—
To leave this weary road,
And 'mid the brotherhood on high,
To be at home with God.
- 2 It is not death to close
The eye long dimmed by tears,
And wake in glorious repose,
To spend eternal years.
- 3 It is not death to fling
Aside this sinful dust,
And rise on strong, exulting wing,
To live among the just.
- 4 Jesus, thou Prince of life,
Thy chosen can not die;
Like thee, they conquer in the strife,
To reign with thee on high.

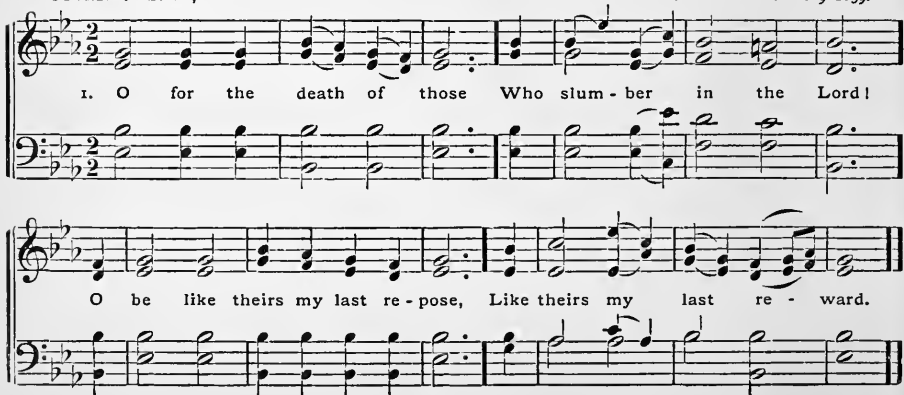

633

JAMES MONTGOMERY, 1831.

- 1 O for the death of those
Who slumber in the Lord!
O be like theirs my last repose,
Like theirs my last reward!
- 2 Their bodies in the ground,
In silent hope may lie,
Till the last trumpet's joyful sound
Shall call them to the sky.
- 3 Their ransomed spirits soar,
On wings of faith and love,
To meet the Saviour they adore,
And reign with him above.
- 4 O for the death of those
Who slumber in the Lord!
O be like theirs my last repose,
Like theirs my last reward!

1. O where shall rest be found,— Rest for the wea - ry soul?

’T were vain the o - cean depths to sound, Or pierce to ei - ther pole.

634

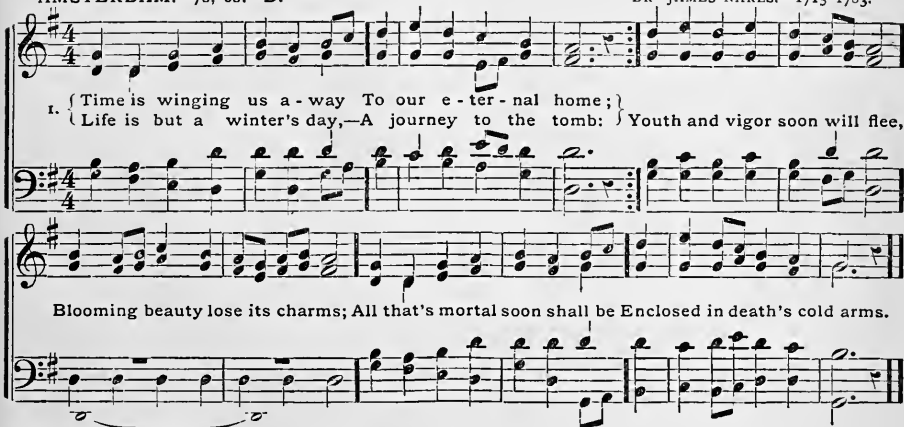

JAMES MONTGOMERY. 1819.

- 1 O where shall rest be found,—
Rest for the weary soul?
’T were vain the ocean depths to sound,
Or pierce to either pole.
- 2 The world can never give
The bliss for which we sigh;
’T is not the whole of life to live,
Nor all of death to die.
- 3 Beyond this vale of tears
There is a life above,

- Unmeasured by the flight of years;
And all that life is love.
- 4 There is a death, whose pang
Outlasts the fleeting breath:
O what eternal horrors hang
Around the second death!
- 5 Lord God of truth and grace,
Teach us that death to shun;
Lest we be banished from thy face,
And evermore undone.

Nearer than now I think.

 { With its crys-tal tide for-ev-er (Omit.) . . . . . } Flowing

1 Shall we gather at the river,
 Where bright angel-feet have trod;
 With its crystal tide forever
 Flowing by the throne of God.

REF.—Yes, we'll gather at the river,
 The beautiful, the beautiful river—
 Gather with the saints at the river
 That flows by the throne of God.

2 On the margin of the river,
 Washing up its silver spray,
 We will walk and worship ever,
 All the happy, golden day.

3 Soon we'll reach the shining river,
 Soon our pilgrimage will cease;
 Soon our happy hearts will quiver

1 When shall we meet again?—

 When will Peace wreath her chain
 Round us forever?
 Our hearts will ne'er repose
 Safe from each blast that blows
 In this dark vale of woes,—

2 When shall love freely flow,
 Pure as life's river?
 When shall sweet friendship glow
 Changeless forever?
 Where joys celestial thrill,
 Where bliss each heart shall fill,
 And fears of parting chill
 Never,—no, never!

3 Up to that world of light,
 Take us, dear Saviour;
 May we all there unite,
 Happy forever!
 Where kindred spirits dwell,
 There may our music swell,
 And time our joys dispel
 Never,—no, never!

4 Soon shall we meet again,—
 Meet ne'er to sever;
 Soon will Peace wreath her chain

 Our hearts will then repose
 Secure from worldly woes;
 Our songs of praise shall close
 Never,—no, never!

1 Asleep in Jesus! blessed sleep,
From which none ever wakes to weep;
A calm and undisturbed repose,
Unbroken by the last of foes.

2 Asleep in Jesus! O how sweet
To be for such a slumber meet!
With holy confidence to sing
That death has lost his venom'd sting.

3 Asleep in Jesus! peaceful rest,

No fear, no woe shall dim that hour

1 Sister, thou wast mild and lovely,

Pleasant as the air of evening,
When it floats among the trees.

2 Peaceful be thy silent slumber,—
Peaceful in the grave so low;

640

ISAAC WATTS. 1734.

1 Unveil thy bosom, faithful tomb;
Take this new treasure to thy trust,
And give these sacred relics room
To slumber in the silent dust.

2 Nor pain nor grief nor anxious fear
Invades thy bounds; no mortal woes
Can reach the peaceful sleeper here,
While angels watch the soft repose.

3 So Jesus slept; God's dying Son
Passed thro' the grave and blessed the bed;
Rest here, blest saint, till from his throne
The morning break and pierce the shade.

DR. LOWELL MASON. 1792-1872.

Thou no more wilt join our number;

'Tis but the voice that Je - sus sends, To call them to his arms.

642

ISAAC WATTS. 1707.

1 Why do we mourn departing friends,
Or shake at death's alarms?
'Tis but the voice that Jesus sends,
To call them to his arms.

2 Are we not tending upward, too,
As fast as time can move?
Nor would we wish the hours more slow,
To keep us from our love.

3 Why should we tremble to convey
Their bodies to the tomb?
There the dear flesh of Jesus lay,
And scattered all the gloom.

4 The graves of all the saints he blessed,
And softened every bed;
Where should the dying members rest,
But with the dying Head?

5 Thence he arose, ascending high,
And showed our feet the way;
Up to the Lord we, too, shall fly
At the great rising day.

From suffering and from sin released,

644

JAMES MONTGOMERY. 1771-1854.

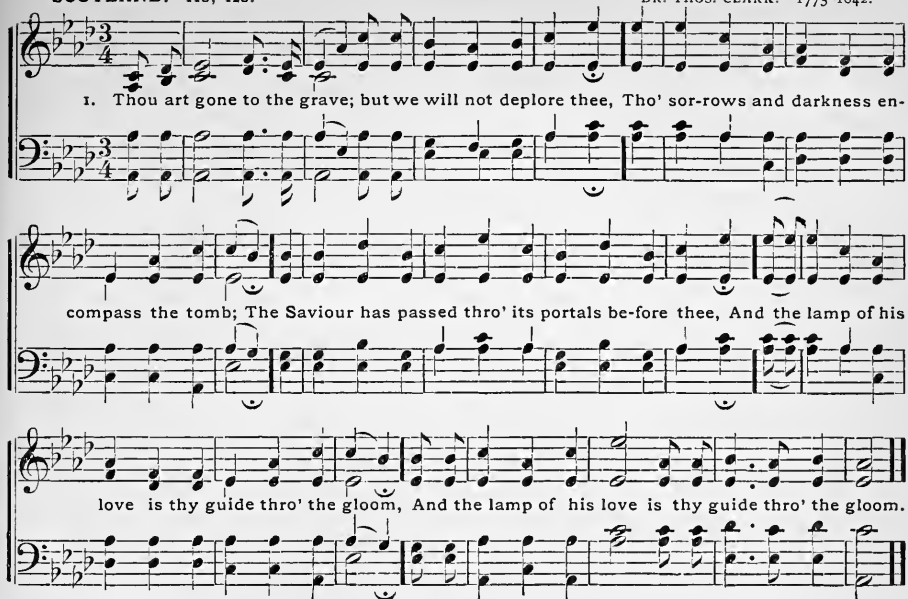

- 1 Go to the grave in all thy glorious prime!
In full activity of zeal and power;
A Christian can not die before his time:
The Lord's appointment is the servant's hour.
- 2 Go to the grave; at noon from labor cease;
Rest on thy sheaves, thy harvest-task is done;
Come from the heat of battle, and in peace,
Soldier! go home; with thee the fight is won.
- 3 Go to the grave, for there thy Saviour lay
In death's embraces, ere he rose on high;
And all the ransomed, by that narrow way,
Pass to eternal life beyond the sky.
- 4 Go to the grave! no, take thy seat above!
Be thy pure spirit present with the Lord,
Where thou for faith and hope hast perfect love,
And open vision for the written word. Amen.

1. Sleep thy last sleep, Free from care and sorrow; Rest, where none weep, Till th'eternal morrow;

Nor tread the rough paths of the world by thy side;
But the wide arms of mercy are spread to enfold thee,
And sinners may hope, since the Saviour hath died.
- 3 Thou art gone to the grave; and, its mansion forsaking,
Perchance thy weak spirit in doubt lingered long;
But the sunshine of heaven beamed bright on thy waking,
And the sound thou didst hear was the seraphim's song.
- 4 Thou art gone to the grave; but we will not deplore thee,
Since God was thy Ransom, thy Guardian, thy Guide;

Now thy little lamb's brief weeping:
Ah, how peaceful, pale, and mild
In its narrow bed 'tis sleeping!
And no sigh of anguish sore
Heaves that little bosom more.

2 In this world of care and pain,
Lord, thou wouldst no longer leave it;
To the sunny, heavenly plain

- 1 Lo! what a glorious sight appears
To our believing eyes!
The earth and seas are passed away,
And the old rolling skies.
- 2 From the third heaven, where God resides—
That holy, happy place,—
The New Jerusalem comes down,
Adorned with shining grace.
- 3 Attending angels shout for joy,
And the bright armies sing,—

“Mortals! behold the sacred seat
Of your descending King.

- 4 “His own soft hand shall wipe the tears
From every weeping eye;
And pains and groans and griefs and fears,
And death itself shall die!”
- 5 How long, dear Saviour, O how long
Shall this bright hour delay?
Fly swifter round, ye wheels of time,
And bring the welcome day.

 What its signs of promise are.
 Traveler! o'er yon mountain's height,
 See that glory-beaming star.
 Watchman! does its beauteous ray
 Aught of hope or joy foretell?
 Traveler! yes; it brings the day,
 Promised day of Israel.
 2 Watchman! tell us of the night;
 Higher yet that star ascends.
 Traveler! blessedness and light,
 Peace and truth, its course portends.

Watchman! will its beams alone
 Gild the spot that gave them birth?
 Traveler! ages are its own;
 See, it bursts o'er all the earth.
 3 Watchman! tell us of the night,
 For the morning seems to dawn.
 Traveler! darkness takes its flight;
 Doubt and terror are withdrawn.
 Watchman! let thy wanderings cease,
 Hie thee to thy quiet home.
 Traveler! lo! the Prince of peace,
 Lo! the Son of God is come.

JUDGMENT HYMN. P. M.

MARTIN LUTHER. 1483-1540.

1. { Great God, what do I see and hear! The end of things created! }
 { The Judge of all men doth appear, On clouds of glory seated: } The trumpet sounds; the graves restore The dead which they contained before; Pre-pare, my soul, to meet him.

660

B. RINGWALDT. 1585, and W. B. COLLYER. 1812.

- 1 Great God, what do I see and hear!
 The end of things created!
 The Judge of all men doth appear,
 On clouds of glory seated:
 The trumpet sounds; the graves restore
 The dead which they contained before;
 Prepare, my soul, to meet him.
- 2 The dead in Christ shall first arise
 At the last trumpet's sounding,—
 Caught up to meet him in the skies,
 With joy their Lord surrounding:
 No gloomy fears their souls dismay,
 His presence sheds eternal day
 On those prepared to meet him.

- 3 But sinners, filled with guilty fears,
 Behold his wrath prevailing;
 For they shall rise, and find their tears
 And sighs are unavailing:
 The day of grace is past and gone;
 Trembling they stand before the throne,
 All unprepared to meet him.
- 4 Great God, what do I see and hear!
 The end of things created!
 The Judge of all men doth appear,
 On clouds of glory seated:
 Low at his cross I view the day
 When heaven and earth shall pass away,
 And thus prepare to meet him.

662 S. SHIRLEY, COUNTESS OF HUNTINGTON 1772.

1 When thou, my righteous Judge, shalt come
To take thy ransomed people home,
Shall I among them stand?
Shall such a worthless worm as I,
Who sometimes am afraid to die,
Be found at thy right hand?

2 I love to meet among them now,
Before thy gracious feet to bow,
Though vilest of them all;
But—can I bear the piercing thought?—
What if my name should be left out,
When thou for them shalt call?

3 Prevent, prevent it by thy grace;
Be thou, dear Lord, my hiding-place,
In this, th' accepted day;
Thy pardoning voice, O let me hear,
To still my unbelieving fear,
Nor let me fall, I pray.

4 Among thy saints let me be found,
When'er the archangel's trump shall sound,
To see thy smiling face;
Then loudest of the throng I'll sing,
While heaven's resounding mansions ring
With shouts of sovereign grace.

663

JOHN NEWTON. 1779.

1 Day of judgment, day of wonders,—
Hark! the trumpet's awful sound,
Louder than a thousand thunders,
Shakes the vast creation round:
How the summons
Will the sinner's heart confound!

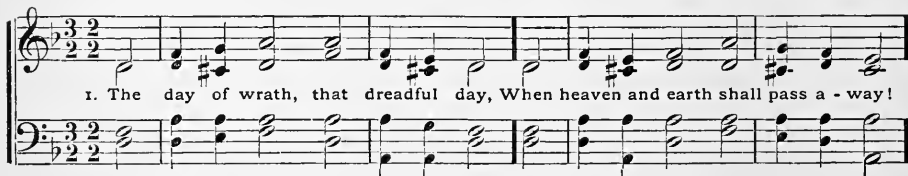

2 See the Judge, our nature wearing,
Clothed in majesty divine;
You who long for his appearing
Then shall say, "This God is mine:"
Gracious Saviour,
Own me in that day for thine.

3 At his call the dead awaken,
Rise to life from earth and sea;
All the powers of nature, shaken
By his looks, prepare to flee:
Careless sinner,
What will then become of thee?

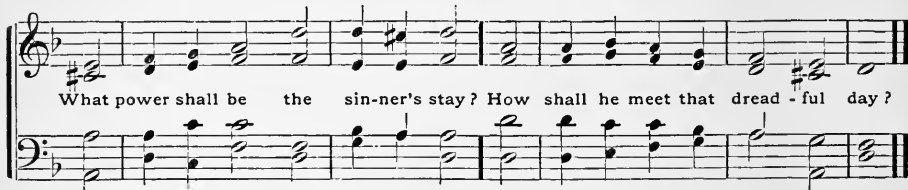

4 But to those who have confessed,
Loved, and served the Lord below,
He will say, "Come near, ye blessed;
See the kingdom I bestow:
You forever
Shall my love and glory know."

1 The day of wrath, that dreadful day,
When heaven and earth shall pass away!
What power shall be the sinner's stay?
How shall he meet that dreadful day?

2 When, shriveling like a parched scroll,
The flaming heavens together roll,

And louder yet, and yet more dread,
Resounds the trump that wakes the dead?

3 O on that day, that wrathful day,
When man to judgment wakes from clay,
Be thou, O Christ, the sinner's stay,
Though heaven and earth shall pass away.

1. { We shall meet beyond the riv - er, By and by, by and by; }

JOHN ATKINSON.

- 1 We shall meet beyond the river,
 By and by, by and by;
 And the darkness shall be over,
 By and by, by and by;
 With the toilsome journey done,
 And the glorious battle won,
 We shall shine forth as the sun,
 By and by, by and by.
- 2 We shall strike the harps of glory,
 By and by, by and by;
 We shall sing redemption's story,
 By and by, by and by;

- And the strains for evermore
 Shall resound in sweetness o'er
 Yonder everlasting shore,
 By and by, by and by.
- 3 We shall see and be like Jesus,
 By and by, by and by;
 Who a crown of life will give us,
 By and by, by and by;
 And the angels who fulfill
 All the mandates of his will
 Shall attend and love us still,
 By and by, by and by.

681

HORATIUS BONAR. 1866.

1 Upward where the stars are burning,
Silent, silent in their turning,

Round the never-changing pole;
Upward where the sky is brightest,
Upward where the blue is lightest,
Lift I now my longing soul.

2 Where the Lamb on high is seated,
By ten thousand voices greeted:
Lord of lords, and King of kings.

Son of man, they crown, they crown him;
Son of God, they own, they own him;
With his name the palace rings.

3 Blessing, honor, without measure,
Heavenly riches, earthly treasure,
Lay we at his blessed feet.

Poor the praise that now we render,
Loud shall be our voices yonder,
When before his throne we meet.

LATIN HYMN. 8TH CENT.
WILLIAMS AND BODEN'S COL. 1801.

1 Jerusalem, my happy home,
Name ever dear to me!
When shall my labors have an end,
In joy and peace, in thee?

2 O when, thou city of my God,
Shall I thy courts ascend,
Where congregations ne'er break up,
And Sabbaths have no end?

3 There happier bowers than Eden's bloom,
Nor sin nor sorrow know;
Blest seats, through rude and stormy scenes,
I onward press to you.

4 Jerusalem, my glorious home,
My soul still pants for thee;
Then shall my labors have an end
When I thy joys shall see.

1 O Paradise! O Paradise!

Who doth not crave for rest?
Who would not seek the happy land,
Where they that loved are blest?

REF.—Where loyal hearts and true

Stand ever in the light,
All rapture through and through,
In God's most holy sight.

2 O Paradise! O Paradise!

'Tis weary waiting here;
I long to be where Jesus is,
To feel, to see him near.

3 O Paradise! O Paradise!

I want to sin no more;
I want to be as pure on earth
As on thy spotless shore.

ISAAC WATTS. 1707.

1 There is a land of pure delight,
Where saints immortal reign;
Eternal day excludes the night,
And pleasures banish pain.

2 There everlasting spring abides,
And never-fading flowers:
Death, like a narrow sea, divides
That heavenly land from ours.

3 Sweet fields beyond the swelling flood,
Stand dressed in living green;
So to the Jews old Canaan stood,
While Jordan rolled between.

4 Could we but climb where Moses stood,
And view the landscape o'er,—
Not Jordan's stream nor death's cold flood
Should fright us from the shore.

SABINE BARING-GOULD. 1834.

1 Daily, daily sing the praises
 Of the city God hath made;
 In the beauteous fields of Eden
 Its foundation-stones are laid.
 From the throne a river issues,
 Clear as crystal, passing bright,
 And it traverses the city
 Like a sudden beam of light.

2 There the wind is sweetly fragrant,
 And is laden with the song
 Of the seraphs and the elders,
 And the great redeemed throng.
 O I would my ears were open
 Here to catch that happy strain!
 O I would my eyes some vision
 Of that Eden could attain!

May we cheerfully obey;

For the love that crowns our days;
Bounteous source of every joy,
Let thy praise our tongues employ.

Yellow sheaves of ripened grain;
Clouds that drop their fattening dews,
Suns that temperate warmth diffuse.

3 All that spring with bounteous hand
Scatters o'er the smiling land;
All that liberal autumn pours
From her rich, o'erflowing stores,—

4 Lord, for these our souls shall raise
Grateful vows and solemn praise;
And when every blessing's frown,
Love thee for thyself alone.

690

HENRY ALFORD. 1844.

1 Come, ye thankful people, come,
Raise the song of harvest home!
All is safely gathered in,
Ere the winter storms begin:
God, our Maker, doth provide
For our wants to be supplied:
Come to God's own temple, come,
Raise the song of harvest home.

2 We ourselves are God's own field
Fruit unto his praise to yield;
Wheat and tares together sown
Unto joy or sorrow grown;

First the blade, and then the ear,
Then the full corn shall appear;
Lord of harvest! grant that we
Wholesome grain and pure may be.

3 For the Lord our God shall come,
And shall take his harvest home;
From his field shall purge away
All that doth offend that day;
Give his angels charge at last
In the fire the tares to cast;
But the fruitful ears to store
In his garner evermore.

1 Great God, we sing that mighty hand,
By which supported still we stand;
The opening year thy mercy shows;
Let mercy crown it till it close.

2 By day, by night, at home, abroad,
Still we are guarded by our God;
By his incessant bounty fed,
By his unerring counsel led.

3 With grateful hearts the past we own;
The future,—all to us unknown,—
We to thy guardian care commit,
And peaceful leave before thy feet.

4 In scenes exalted or depressed,
Be thou our joy and thou our rest;
Thy goodness all our hopes shall raise,
Adored through all our changing days.

699

PHILIP DODDRIDGE. 1751.

1 Our helper, God, we bless thy name,

Supported by thy guardian hand;
And see, when we review our ways,
Ten thousand monuments of praise.

3 Thus far thine arm has led us on;
Thus far we make thy mercy known;
And while we tread this desert land,

3 O that each in the day of his coming
